Sir Arthur Currie,
Chairman, McCord Museum,
McGill University.

Dear Sir Arthur,

This may be an appropriate time to recall a suggestion I once made to you and Mr. Glassco regarding the administration of the McCord Museum. The recent passing of the Honorary Curator and the present academic season for committee appointments for next session would make a rearrangement both natural and easy at the present moment.

I have always felt that there should be a closer connection between the McCord Museum and the History Department of the University, and that some member of the staff who is a specialist in Canadian history and has executive ability should be regarded as Curator of the Museum.

As a former Secretary of that Committee and as a member of the Administrative Sub-Committee, I would like to suggest your favorable consideration of the appointment of Mr. MacDermot as Curator of the McCord Museum.

Faithfully yours,

G. R. Lomer.
