

VAN

172. Climate, 174. Total number of acres belonging to Vancouver Island, 184. Agricultural districts, 184. Mr. Moffat's journey across the Island from Nimpkish River to Nootka Sound, 188. Average yield of crops, 194. Stock, 195. Prices of produce and stock, 197-199. Animals and vegetables of Vancouver Island and British Columbia, 297. Political statistics of Vancouver Island, 310. Grant of the Island to the Hudson's Bay Company, 310. The germ of Colonial Legislature, 313. Disputes between independent colonists and the authorities, 314. The first bill of appropriation, 315. Disproportionate paraphernalia of Government, 316. Sources of colonial revenue, 317. Estimates of colonial expenditure for 1864, 318. Opposition of the Legislature to the proposals of the Duke of Newcastle, 320. Reception of Governor Kennedy, 322. The question of union between the two colonies, 323. Society in Vancouver Island, 378. Chinese in the Island, 386. The Negro element, 388. Governor Douglas, 393. Defalcations of officials, 399. Religion on the Island, 417. Crime, 418. The Indians of the colony, 423. Land proclamations of Sir James Douglas, 528.
- Vancouver, Captain, his description of Vancouver Island quoted, 51. Sent to adjust a dispute with the Spanish authorities in the Pacific, 57, 58. His survey of the Straits of Fuca and Admiralty Inlet, 58. Reaches 100 miles above Nootka, 58.
- Vasco, Nunez de Balboa, his discovery of the Pacific Ocean, 52.
- Vegetables, prices of in New Westminster, 293.
- Vegetation of Cowichan, 47. Of Vancouver Island and British Columbia, 297.
- Vessels, number and tonnage of, entered at Victoria, in 1861-1863, 108.
- Vermilion Pass, in the Rocky Mountains, 362.
- Victoria, city and harbour of, 44. Influence of the discovery of gold in the growth of, 64, 65. Rush from California, 65. Sudden rise in the value of land, 65, 66. The rival cities attempted by the Americans, 66.

VIC

Unequalled superiority of Victoria Harbour, 67. Reaction in Victoria and return of faint-hearted speculators to California, 69. Riots of the 'rowdies' assembled in the city, 71. Gloomy state of the city, 71. Yield of gold for the first four months, 72. Lowest point of depopulation, in 1858, 73. Cheering news from Queen's, 74. The immigration of 1862 and disappointment and privation of the inexperienced, 75, 76. Description of the city of Victoria as it now is, 77. Population, 77. Beaconhill Park, 77. Walks and drives, 77. Public buildings, 78. The streets and houses, 78. Volunteer firemen, 79. Theatre and drinking saloons, 79. Police barracks, 79. Reading-room and library, 79. Associations for various purposes, 80. Foreigners in the city, 80. Volunteer rifle corps, 80. The newspaper press, 81. Religious bodies, 81. Miss Burdett Coutts's endowment of the diocese, 81. Colleges and schools, 84. Manufactories and joint stock companies, 85. Gas and water supply, 85, 86. The municipal council, 86. Sewage of the city, 86, 87. Want of open spaces, 87. Banks, 87. Augmented value of town property in Victoria, 88. List of trades and professions in Victoria, 89. Victoria regarded as a free port, 91. Importance of guarding the city against the introduction of customs' duties, 93. Proposed union with British Columbia as affecting the free port arrangement, 95. Comparative prospects of Victoria and New Westminster, 97. Amount of imports into the port of Victoria in 1861-1863, 106. Number and tonnage of vessels entered at Victoria in 1861-1863, 108. Trade of Victoria with the American States on the coast, 110. Its trade with Sitka and Mexico, 111. Table of exports of English or American goods for the six months ending December 1863, 112. Exports from Victoria to foreign ports during the month of October 1864, 113. Commercial capabilities of Victoria, 116, 117. Advantages of direct trade with, 118. Proposal for a depot for European goods, 119, 120. Effect of the increasing customs' restrictions of San Francisco upon the trade of Victoria, 121. Facilities for return