SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF

THE INCORPORATED CHURCH SOCIETY

OF THE

DIOCESE OF HURON.

In reviewing the work of the past year, and presenting their Sixth Annual Report, the Standing Committee are gratified by being able to state that the returns made exceed those of any previous year since the formation of the Church Society; and, as they readily acknowledge that without the blessing of Almighty God all their labors would be vain, so they feel that to Him their gratitude for the success of the past year is due; to Him, therefore, in the first place, they would render their unfeigned and heartfelt thanks.

The past year although it bid fair at one time to be a season of unparalleled fruitfulness, still in the harvest returns did not altogether realize the fond expectations of the farmer, and, in fact, in many places, the staple crop was by no means good, and the yield poor. The Committee are, therefore, under these circumstances, the more gratified at the increased success which they are able to report; and they can
