BRITAIN PROVES U.S. CONTENTION WRONG

Order in Council Conforms to International Law, Washington Told.

BLOCKADE JUSTIFIED

New Memorandum Will Deal With American Caveat Filed at London.

application and set out in determined language the purpose of the United States Government to maintain the freedom of the seas, might have influenced the British foreign office to deal with that subject in the same spirit which it has shown in its recent proceedings under the principles of international law as hitherto established.

CAVEAT FILED

This communication, known as a caveat, recited that in view of the difference of opinion as to the interpretation of the two governments as to the principles of law applicable in prize court proceedings, cases involving American interests, and in order to avoid any misunderstanding as to the validity of the British blockade, the American Government would insist upon the recognition of the rights of neutrals under the principles of international law as hitherto established.

CONFORMS TO INTERNATIONAL LAW

The British note, delivered yesterday, is understood to set forth that the order in council does not transgress the rights of neutrals as laid down in international law. It is admitted that in some respects the application of the legal principles is not in accordance with the stipulations by the United States to the order in council made in the caveat.
