

Satisfaction we had to find our Lives were safe. Being thus parted, the Savages led us away each to his own Village.

I came to Aquipaguetin's Habitation in the Month of May, 1680. The next Day he shewed me to six or seven of his Wives, telling them, that they were to esteem me as one of their Sons, and ordered those about him to give me the Title that was due to the Rank which I was to hold among my new Kindred.

I spent three Months very ill in this Place among the Iffati and Nadoveffians. My new Father gave me nothing to eat but a few wild Oats, five or six times a Week, and the Roes of dry'd Fish. He sent me into a Neighbouring Isle, with his Wives, Children and Servants, where I digged with a Pick-ax and Shovel, I had recover'd from those that robb'd us. Here we planted Tobacco and some European Pulse, which I brought from thence, and were highly priz'd by Aquipaguetin.

During my stay among them there arriv'd four Savages in Embassy, who said they were come above five hundred Leagues from the West, and had been four Moons upon the Way, and that they had marched without resting, except to Sleep or kill Game for their Subsistence.
