

are liable
 may deviate
 Crown.

tution of Instructions
 own have ect on the Officer Nature of d if they,
 Board of
 to vary ction, or e signified
 stitution,
 ual Clash-
 Usefulness
 respect to their

their Trade and Commerce, will be in a great Measure lessened thereby, and alternately both the Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties and Properties of the Subject, invaded; and that too, in many Cases, without a Possibility of Redress: And indeed it is not possible, with the greatest human Foresight and Knowledge of Business, in our Council of Trade, to carry the Orders and Instructions of the Crown into due Execution, or effectually to improve or extend our Colonies in America, otherwise than by having all the Records of the Colonies duly formed and transmitted to them, and by being entirely free H and