

I N D E X.

- Smith, Samuel*, his Proposal to C. M. p. 17.
- Stupidity* of the Lieutenant, Surgeon, and Clerk, p. 17.
- Straits* frozen asserted to be real, ib.
- Ship's* Crew in a miserable condition, ib.
- Ship* has no Effect on the Sight, p. 32.
- Search* of the S. W. Tide neglected, p. 35.
- Straits* frozen a Fiction, p. 48.
- Ships*, Necessity of cutting them out of the Ice, p. 64.
- Supposition* imposed for a Reality, p. 68, 69.
- Strait*, a spacious one, an imaginary Discovery, p. 87.
- Sneer* of Mr. Dobbs, p. 89.
- Tides*, N. E. by E. p. 43.
- Truth* concealed, p. 63.
- Tides*, &c. Mr. Dobbs's Witnesses no Judges of, p. 64.
- Thompson's* Boats, p. 68.
- Tampering* with Witnesses, p. 99. Acknowledged, in some measure, by Mr. Dobbs, p. 100.
- Tide* of Flood from the Eastward, p. 101.
- from the Western Ocean annihilated by Mr. Dobbs's printed Log, p. 105.
- Tide* from S. W. destroyed by his own Log, and Kelsey's Journal, p. 105.
- Tides*, p. 106, 107, to 119.
- Tides*, a Blunder by Mr. Dobbs of 16 Points of the Compass, from p. 113 to 119.
- Tide-table*, p. 189 to 191.
- Tides* from the N. E. in the Welcome, proved by his own Letter, p. 191.

T.

- Thompson* and Wygate's Characters, in a Letter from Mr. Gill and Lendrick, p. 16.
- Transactions* of the Voyage concealed, at C. M's Request, p. 18.
- Tongue*, Northern Indians, understood by whom, p. 29.

V.

- Vigilance* of C. M. proved by Mr. Lendrick, p. 17.
- Variation* foisted into a Report, p. 69, 70.

W.

- Wilson* cautioned by C. M. p. 15.
- Water*, three Bottles, ib.
Wygate's