

ourselves, and that such work and its due reward could not fail us ! What serious harm could happen to us then ? And the price to be paid for so making the world happy is Revolution : Socialism instead of Laissez faire.

How can we of the middle classes help to bring such a state of things about ; a state of things as nearly as possible the reverse of the present state of things ?

The reverse ; no less than that. For first, The work must be worth doing : think what a change that would make in the world ! I tell you I feel dazed at the thought of the immensity of work which is undergone for the making of useless things.

It would be an instructive day's work for any one of us who is strong enough to walk through two or three of the principal streets of London on a week-day, and take accurate
