

CONTENTS

VOLUME II.

PLANS

1. Annexation Map. Dates at which various districts were annexed to the City.
2. Franchise Map.
3. Plan showing the Built-up Area of Toronto at different periods and topographical barriers affecting same.
4. Population dot Maps, each dot representing 100 persons, at various periods from 1879 to 1914.
5. Isometric projection showing density of population per acre per block, within present city limits.
6. Present Classified Occupancy in the Built-up Area in and surrounding the City.
7. Past growth of the central business area.
8. Street Traffic Map, showing the volume of vehicular and street railway movement in the central section.
9. Analysis of passenger movement during morning rush hour period, showing the requirements for car service in various sections of the City.
10. Diagram showing homeward movement during evening rush period.
11. Diagram showing volume and distribution of daily passenger traffic on street car routes.
12. Diagram showing riding necessity or habit of the population in various sections of the City.
13. Plan exemplifying conditions arising from the confinement of the Toronto Railway Company's lines within, and the growth of Toronto beyond the city limits of 1891.
14. Time zone diagram—present service.
15. Time zone diagram—attainable service.
16. Probable future occupancy map—topographical barriers unbroken.
17. Probable future occupancy map—topographical barriers broken.
18. Plan showing existing surface systems, radial railways and proposed radial railway entrance lines and terminal.
19. Perspective sketch of proposed waterfront terminal between Bay and Yonge Streets.
20. Population of townships, villages, towns and cities—Southwestern Ontario.
21. Value of farm and manufacturing products for townships, villages, towns and cities—Southwestern Ontario.