

- 143; irrepressible conflict with France in America, 233, 239; in the war of the Austrian Succession, 249; first troops sent for French and Indian War, 281; declares war on France, 301; allied with Prussia, 302. See also Colonies, French and Indian War.
- Entraigues, Henriette d', Henry IV.'s mistress, and the Jesuits, 74.
- Eric, Penn. See Presqu'Isle.
- Eries, kin of Five Nations, 48; refuse to join confederacy, 48; consequent annihilation, 49.
- Europe, condition at end of sixteenth century, 34.
- Fagundes, Alvarez, Portuguese navigator, voyage, 7.
- Five Nations. See Iroquois.
- Florida, Huguenot colony, 33.
- Forbes, John, English general, character, 336; expedition against Fort Duquesne, 336; lieutenants and force, 336; route, 337; method of advance, 337-339; Grant's defeat, 339; finds the fort deserted, 341; death, 342.
- Fort Crèvecoeur, Ill., built, 127; mutiny and destruction, 128.
- Fort Duquesne (Pittsburg), importance of location, 261, 263, 326; rival English colonial claims to site, 268; English attempt to build a fort, 272; French build, 272; Braddock prepares to march against, 283-285; his march, 286-288; French force, 288; defeat of Braddock, 289-292; English retreat, 292; effect of destruction of Fort Frontenac, 335, 340; Forbes's expedition against, 337-340; isolated and abandoned, 341; named Fort Pitt, 341.
- Fort Edward, N. Y., built, 296; Webb's force at, 311.
- Fort Frontenac (Kingston), Canada, built, 124; La Salle commands and rebuilds, 124; strategic value, 326, 335; captured, 334; destroyed, 335.
- Fort Le Boeuf, Penn., French blockhouse, 268; Washington at, 271.
- Fort Lyman. See Fort Edward.
- Fort Necessity, Penn., Washington builds, 275; battle and surrender, 275.
- Fort Niagara, N. Y., failure of Shirley's expedition against, 294, 300; Prideaux's expedition against, 345; relief routed, 346; surrender, 347.
- Fort Stanwix (Rome), N. Y., built, 335; purpose, 335.
- Fort William Henry, N. Y., Montcalm advances against, 310-312; reinforced, 312; siege, 312; surrender, 313; massacre, 314.
- France, war with Spain, 8, 12; civil wars, 32; condition at end of sixteenth century, 34, 35; policy in America, 62-64, 104, 120-122, 132; takes possession of the Northwest, 107-109; claim to the Mississippi valley, 130; irrepressible conflict with England in America, 233, 239; in war of Austrian Succession, 249; first troops sent for French and Indian War, 281; England declares war, 301; in the Seven Years' War, 302; disasters in 1759, 342. See also Canada, French and Indian War.
- Francis I. of France, on the bull of demarcation, 8; capture, 12; creates a viceroyalty in the New World, 22, 28.
- Franklin, Benjamin, Albany Plan, 280; and Braddock, 284; on Loudoun, 307.
- Frederick the Great of Prussia, and the Seven Years' War, 301; allied with England, 302.
- French and Indian War, first move-