SAVES PLANO, HURTS HIMSELF

George Kennedy Will Be Laid Up Awhile—Other Accidents—Archdeacon Clark Ill.

Hamilton, Sept. 5.—(Special.)—George Kennedy, 138 North John-street, son of B. A. Kennedy, manager of the International Harvester Co., was brought to the city hospital today. He was one of the young men who occupied the cottage at the beach that was burned early this morning.

Walter Cline, Toronto, a G.T.R. brakeman, is in the same institution. He fell while coupling cars to-day and his ankle is injured.

Harry McGargie, 448 North James-street, was taken to the hospital with his arm broken in three places. He says he got his injury by falling on the sidewalk.

Archdeacon Clark, who set out for Quebec to attend the synod, took ill on the way, was brought back to St. Joseph's hospital to undergo an operation.

Miss Watson, matron at the Hamilton Asylum, has resigned as a result of a presentation to the government. It is said that in the opinion of local politicians Dr. Russell may be allowed to remain at the head of the asylum for some time.

On Deck Once More. Hon. Arthur Kennedy and Hon. Chas. D. Haines arrived in the city to-day. Mr. Kennedy said they expected to see the electric line between Hamilton and Brantford graded this fall, and that it would be in operation by a year from next November.

The Ontario Pipe Line Company has laid seven miles of 8-inch gas mains, and will not charge meter rent, and will supply the whole district south of King William-street east of James-street, and south of York-street west of James-street, in addition to the east-end manufacturing district, this winter.

Alex. J. Douglas was this morning acquitted of the charge of destroying mortgages and documents belonging to his partner, A. L. Hurst, who was defended by George S. Kerr, who argued that the evidence seemed to point to the other way.

This morning J. W. Ross' summer cottage, Kenilworth, at station 9 on the beach, and Harry Knapp's, on the house, were burned to the ground. The loss will be about $1800, and there is no insurance. Four young men, Fred Bickler, George Kennedy, Fred Nelson and Stewart Munro, who occupied the cottage, had a narrow escape.

John Brown, the farm hand, stole his employer's watch, was sent down for six months by the magistrate this morning.

Worried in Horse Deal. Hon. Dr. Montague claims that he was deceived in a horse deal by Lewis Meredith, London, and he has issued a writ against the London man for $200. He says that the horse was sold to him by Meredith but was not that it was said to be.

The Harry Webb Company appealed against assessment on their baking and confectionery plants at Buchanan-street, which together were valued at $123,113, and assessed at 60 per cent.

The court separated the two and assessed the value of the bakery, $35,013 at 25 per cent, and the confectionery business $17,500 at 60 per cent.

The John Labatt Brewing Company, Limited, were assessed $7,500 on the bottling vaults and store house on Elm-st., valued at $11,500. The manufacturing business is carried on in London. They wished to be assessed as a retail business, but the court maintained it was wholesale and refused to reduce the 75 per cent rate.

The assessment of Donald Mackay for $12,000 on the land and $5,000 on the house at 5 Queen's Park was upheld. Bank stock held by Mrs. Mackay was an assessment also objected to, but was upheld.

John Taylor's two lots at 450 Jarvis were valued at $50 and $100 per foot. The court reduced it to $3 on both.

The Fred Victor Mission was exempted as a religious and charitable institution.

For a similar reason the W. C. T. U. property at 56 Elm-street was excused.

GIVING TAFT A GOOD TIME

Hongkong, Sept. 5.—At noon to-day United States Secretary of War Taft and Major-General Corbin were entertained at luncheon by the commanding officer of the troops.
