The police believe that the hold-up was intended merely as a prank by half a dozen chauffeurs who were returning from a ball in Hartiem.

The victims of the hold-up were Milton Roblee, formerly owner of the Hotel Belleclaire; his friend, W. G. Chittick, and a cabman who was driving the two men to their homes. They were driving along Central Park West, when, at Seventy-first-street, an automobile containing six persons appeared in sight traveling south. As the machine meared the cab the automobile stopped and three of the six men jumped out. Two of them jumped on the box of the cab while the other ran to the horse's head.
