ENTRANCE: NO. 1 ADELAIDE EAST.
DR. C. F. KNIGHT, Prop. TORONTO a college in Charlottetown, P.E.I. After laboring for five years as a missionary in the Maritime Provinces, he was appointed curate at St. Patrick's Church n this city. He remained here for three pears, and was then given a parish at Caledonia. The funeral will take place fonday morning from St. Mary's Cathe-

Fire Department Puzzled. Late last night a brick house at 31 Cheaver-street was gutted by fire, and nearly all the furniture destroyed. It was occupied by Edward Downing. The loss will amount to $700. The family was out at the time. The firemen were called to no less than four burning houses' Thursday night within a few hours, and they thought it most singular that in every case the occupants were away. They arrived in time to prevent much damage.

Soldier Boys Fraternize. The bugle band of the Dufferin Rifles paid a visit to the buglers of the 13th Regiment to-day. They had a jolly time. A burlesque band that paraded he streets caused most of the fun. Th dergeants of the same corps fraternized Thursday night, and the visitors de ated the locals at pedro by a score of

The Good Friday marching and firing competition among the companies of the 13th Regiment took place this afternoon, and A Company won the coveted trophy with 555 marks. H Company ed trophy with 555 marks. H Company had the same score, but as they were two men short, they had to take second place. B came third, with 545, and the also rans were F, 474; G, 434; E, 376; D, 366; C, 354. Lleut-Col. Bertram, 77th Regiment, was the chief umpire, and he was assisted by Lieut-Col. Cameron, 38th Regiment, and Adjutant Domville, 13th Regiment.

Successful Cencert.
The 13th Regiment band gave their first spring concert to night in the drill hall, and the place was crowded. One of the most delightful numbers was a new paraphrase of "Rock of Ages," ar ranged by Bandmaster Robinson. Mrs. Martin Murphy was the soloist, and as usual, received a most flattering reception. She was recalled twice.

The musicians of the city have organized. They are not after more pay, but less work. In many of their engagements they think they have to do too ments they think they have to do too much. They also expect that the organization will put a stop to the cut-ting of prices. They have 100 mem-bers to begin with, and nearly all the members of both bands and a great many of the orchestras have joined. many of the orchestras have joined. Bandmaster George Robinson of the 13th Regiment is the president.

More Todd Claimants.

The authorities say that a half dozen at least of the claimants to miser Todd's money are due to morrow. The United States Consul cannot claim the body or money until those who say they are relatives are heard. Among those expected to-morrow are Stephen Todd, a nephew from Niagara-on-the-Lake, a son from Harrisonburg, Va., and Mrs. Reynolds of Buffalo. Altho Mrs. Reynolds admits that she has not seen her father since she was a little girl, she wrote to-day to Chief Smith saying that she was now sure that Todd was

It was not long before I spied my little man. He had not gone far. It goes without saying that he had not yet headed north in the direction of Avenue-road. Much less had he put my note in his little leather wallet. He was gazing rapturously at the photographs outside a theatre. His absorption was intense. Avenue-road was forgotten. He was in the fairyland of the skirt-dance.

In a few minutes he came out of the entrance and headed north. His whistle was again on tap. Lelsurely he went his way. A candy store attracted his attention, and for a few minutes I was a while we have to stay in de lay in de grabeyard, en youse safe.
