

Crescent Street Church Auxiliary

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

PRESIDENT,	- - - - -	MRS. A. B. MACKAY.
REPRESENTATIVES TO PARENT SOCIETY,		{ MRS. J. G. SAVAGE.
		{ MISS MONTEITH.

In presenting the report for the closing year we note with pleasure the increased attendance at the meetings. This is due in a large measure to those ladies who have so kindly visited other members of the congregation and so told them of the work that is being done and interesting them in it.

The meetings have been held regularly on the first Friday of every month. Different ladies having charge of programme for each month, and in this way the circle of those taking part has been widened. During the year some interesting letters and papers have been read, and we were also favored with an address from Mr. Amaron, telling about his work in connection with the French Evangelization.

It was with regret that we were obliged to accept the resignation of our secretary, Miss Savage, who has left the city. The contributions for the past year amount to $526.38.

The sewing meetings of the society have been held at the homes of some of the ladies, and much practical work has been accomplished. Both summer and winter clothing was made for a deaf and dumb girl at the MacKay Institute; also a number of garments for Miss McSween as well as for Nazareth St., the material being supplied by the Ladies' Visiting and Aid Society. Several of the ladies made some most comfortable quilts from samples sent to the latter by Mr. Morrice.

At Nazareth Street the sewing class has been held regularly on Wednesday afternoons. It was felt last year that on account of the small attendance of women it would be better to confine our attention to the children only, espec-
