served for many years to come. According to Ald. Armstrong, the City of West Toronto has been supplying sections of the township on the wessering sections of the township on the wesser norders with water, light and fire protection, and these sections have contributed nothing for the advantages receivers, except that water users have had to pay for taps. These sections have, however, resisted annexation, but now that it is probable West Toronto will join the greater city they are all anxious to come in.
