ARREST OF YOUNG GIRLS SHOWS ORGANIZED GANG

City Wants a Statement Showing Assets of West Toronto—"Ralph Connor" at Weston—Notes.

WEST TORONTO, Nov. 22.—It has now developed that the two little girls from Symington-avenue, who were arrested in West Toronto on Friday for shop-lifting, are members of a band of juvenile law-breakers who have been developing their thieving propensities in a very systematic manner.

The public school board will meet on Tuesday evening. It is hardly likely that the Toronto City Council will spend much time to-morrow in discussing the proposed West Toronto annexation agreement.

City Treasurer Jackson a few days ago received a communication from City Treasurer Coody of Toronto, asking for a statement of the assets and liabilities of the suburban city, in order that it may be produced at the council meeting.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Ward, who died on Saturday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. McCullum, West Dundas-street, will take place to-morrow afternoon at Prospect Cemetery, Rev. T. Beverley Smith of St. John's Episcopal Church will officiate.

Curriers Elect Officers. A well-attended meeting of the Curriers Club of West Toronto was held on Friday evening at their hall, Ravina Park. Refreshments were served. Preparations were made for the coming season's sport, and these officers were elected: Honorary president, Senator Campbell and W. F. Maclean, M.P.; president, R. L. McCormack; vice-president, John McEachern; secretary, J. G. Musson; assistant secretary, C. L. Earnes, B.A.; treasurer, Herman Hechtman.

Before a large crowd of spectators, two games were played on Friday night at the Ontario Bowling Alley, in the Ontario League. The Nationals won from the Knights of Pythias by three straight games, thereby putting them in second place. The Wanderers being first. The second game was between the local Westerns and the Aquatics in Class C League, Toronto, the West Toronto team winning all three games.

Sunday School Rally.

All parents and teachers in West Toronto interested in Sunday school work had a splendid opportunity to learn something in Amette-street Baptist Church to-night, when an interesting address was given by Prof. Gilmour of McMaster University. "The work of the Sunday school," said the speaker, "is one that has no superior in the whole range of Christian activity. Teach the little people the stories, histories and doctrines of the Bible, and get its precepts into their minds, their hearts, their characters. Sunday school work has bearings as large as eternity, and the teachings of the Bible should be inculcated during childhood days, when the mind is most impressionable."

NORTH TORONTO.

Newsp Notes of Recent Happenings Around Town.

NORTH TORONTO, Nov. 22.—The public meeting under the auspices of the Ratepayers' Association, held on Saturday evening, although not largely attended, was a lively one.

The resolution that the Ratepayers' Association stands neutral and will not identify itself with annexation to Toronto, an association, and granting to each individual member the liberty to identify himself with any annexation or anti-annexation movement he sees fit to join, brought forth considerable argument pro

EAST TORONTO.

Big Meeting Wants Intervening Part of York Township in Sure.

EAST TORONTO, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Mayor McMillan presided over a mass meeting of citizens held in the Y.M.C.A. Hall last night, at which about 150 persons were present. The meeting was in response to a largely signed petition to discontinue the activity of the railway and municipal board in refusing to allow that portion of York Township between Greenwood-avenue and East Toronto, to be annexed to the city. The meeting was decidedly favorable to the principle of annexation and while the absolute necessity of annexing the intervening territory was pointed out, there was no suggestion of a desire to delay annexation.

TORONTO PARENTS LAX CHILDREN RUN STREETS

Rev. W. B. Findlay Deplores Prevalence of Profane and Improper Language Among Corner Groups

That Toronto parents are much too prone to allow their children the free run of the streets at night, was a statement made by Rev. W. B. Findlay, speaking at St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church last night. He sounded a distinctly warning note.

Seven-eighths of the children seen on the streets had homes that could be used as nurseries for them, but how to keep in their homes children that were to be seen on the streets, corners at unseasonable hours of the night. Any one who moved about thru Toronto's streets after 6 p.m. must be struck with the tender age of a large number of the children who were allowed to roam about the streets after dark and to gather in mixed groups at the end of lanes, corners of streets and shaded places.

Parents to Blame. "Let me point out an exceedingly dangerous fact that ought to fill us with grave anxiety," said the speaker. "If you approach those groups unseen and unheard you will often hear profane language or hearing stories that ought never to fall from the lips of children."

Street-wandering was subversion of parental authority and the child who grew up without such authority had a gloomy outlook. The street was the school of childish anarchy, where, in the dimly lit hours of darkness, the children learned that it was a smart thing to defy all rules of home.

The World met an observant French Canadian Liberal on Saturday. He said: "Wine, women and graft. The first two did not interest the voters in the late election; the last very much interested them. They were very much interested in the success of those men who had their little voices raised in the name of the voters, and the clergy and others. 'The people do not like grafters, especially the small ones.'"

"DEAR" OFFICIALS PARADED IN DENIAL OF RUMORS

Odd Feature of Picturesque Ceremony in Connection With Chinese Imperial Funeral Rites.

PEKIN, Nov. 22.—The ceremony at the imperial palace Saturday morning, when the members of the diplomatic corps presented the condolences of their respective governments on the death of the Emperor and the Dowager Empress of China, was one of the most impressive ever witnessed in Peking.

A noticeable feature of the proceedings was the presence of every member of the imperial staff, as well as every official, who lately has been reported dead or eliminated from the conduct of affairs of state. This was the answer of the government to the rumors of suicides and deaths current in Peking for the past week.

Prince Ching, for the first time since the pacific era of the late Emperor, appeared officially as the head of the foreign board. The heads of the various governments, all in white, had assembled at the imperial compound in the afternoon of the day, the functions in honor of the dead, the diplomats paid homage to Prince Chun, the regent.

Each foreign legation was represented by three of its members, and the spectacle, as the foreigners approached the palace, was unprecedented. The regent, in a throng of mandarins distributed over the three marble terraces leading to the chieh-ching-kung hall.

The dowager empress lay in state in her own private palace, called Huang-chi-tien. The diplomats passed from the hall where lay the body of the emperor to the palace of the dowager, and they were preceded by Prince Chun, who covered the distance with unmistakable evidence of haste.

The catalogue of her majesty also was ranked by white screens. Behind them, on the left, were grouped all the women of the imperial clan, attended by their serving women, and they all were plainly visible to the foreigners. The mourning dress of the court is exactly the same as that worn by the population.

The appearance of Prince Chun was a disappointment. He bears a strong resemblance to the late Kuangshu. His face, as he wore a black cap, and wore an expression of fright.

TWO SIDES TO THE OUTLOOK

American and European Ideas, as to Financial Future.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Saturday Evening Post has the following financial letter from London: "Continental markets, which purchased American securities before and immediately after your election, have realized that the old days of London itself have been doing nothing. Our view of the present Wall-street position is that if your country has been buying and selling stocks out of the market, no very serious 'slump' is to be immediately expected."
