Palermo, Island of Sicily, May 12.—
'After a funeral service here to-day over the remains of the late Duc d'Aumale, who died on May 7 at his villa at Zuccos, from shock experienced at hearing the news of the death of his nieced by marriage, the Duchesse d'Alencon, who was one of the victims of the charity bazaer fire at Paris on May 4, the body was embarked for France. The garrison of Palermo lined the streets along the route followed by the funeral procession.

Fire Underwiters Meet.

The Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association met yesterday in the Board of Trade building. Owing to numerous fires here the work of title fire brigade was discussed. The classification of towns in the province received some at tention and juncrases in ratings ordered where the fire appliances asked for by the underwriters have not been put in. The authorities in Guelph have signified their intentions required by the underwriters, and consequently their classification, which was lowered some time ago, will be restored.
