Mining Notes

The Chambers-Ferland has assembled and will ship this week end between 21 and 22 tons of high grade ore from their new vein system. This ore has been put over a new bump-ing table, which has been installed in the rock house at the mine.

BASKET SECTION WAS FAIRLY WELL FILLED

But Wagon Situations at St. Lawrence Market Were Poorly Attended Saturday.

COLD HAD BAD EFFECT

New Laid Eggs Plentiful and Declined — Butter Remained Stationary.

The attendance in the wagon section of the St. Lawrence Market was small again Saturday, and likely shall be until the cold weather abates, as this section is so intensely cold it is not fit to stay in for any length of time. It was so cold a week ago that some of the gardeners lost money thru the freezing of their hothouse produce. The basket section, which is heated, was fairly well filled, the better situations being crowded as usual.

Now-laid eggs were again plentiful and declined slightly. Customers paid the highest price, namely. 40c per dozen, but this was for the latest laying, the bulk selling at 35c to 38c per dozen and large quantities selling out at 34c, and 33c, while some went as low as 30c per dozen. Butter remained stationary in price, while fowl was quite scarce, and therefore high-priced. There were only a very few chickens brought in, and this class sold at from 23c to 27c per lb., while boilers sold at 20c to 24c per lb., and live fat hens at 17c, 18c and 19c per lb.; a few extra choice heavy ones bringing as high as 22c per lb.

Spring flowers were for sale in greater quantities, their bright beauty making the gloomly old place look more attractive. Golden Daffodlis, glowing Tulips and old-fashioned mignonettes all selling at 35c per dozen, while spicy carnations were offered at 30c per dozen.

Hothouse rhubarb sold at various prices. 10c per bunch, 3 for 25c, and 90c and $1 per dozen; lettuce at 2 for 5c; and $1 per dozen; lettuce at 2 for 5c; and $1 per dozen; lettuce at 2 for 5c; and $1 per dozen; lettuce at 2 for 5c; and $1 per dozen; lettuce at 2 for 5c; and $1 per dozen, while spicy carnations were offered at 30c per dozen.

In speaking of the camp Dr. Modisett, the physical director of the Detroit. Y. M. C.A., said: "It certainly is a perfect camp and our boys are to be congratulated for being in such good company. You know sentiment in Detroit is all one way, except for that part of the population that is of German birth, but there is no doubt where Detroit and the States stand in this war business."
