REILLY FOUND BY POLICE AT HOTEL DIEZ HOSPITAL

Finally Run Down and a Guard Placed Over Him All Night—Shibley Still a Disappearance—Interest in Bogus Ballot Box Case Does Not Die.

Kingston, Nov. 22.—(Staff Special.)—An unsuccessful search was made today by Dominion Detective Chamberlain in Frontenac at the residence of Francis J. Reilly, teacher at Regiopolis College, and only succeeded in finding him in Hotel Diez Hospital at midnight to-night. The flight of Shibley has created a sensation quite as remarkable as his arrest if such could have been accomplished, for it emphasizes the probability of the prosecution being able to prove that case and show that there was a thoroughly conceived plan to rob the voters of their franchise.

F. J. REILLY.

IS THAT MR. REILLY?

Kingston, Nov. 22.—At 12 o'clock to-night Francis J. Reilly was located in Hotel Diez Hospital under the care of the police. The police ran down the clue at 11 o'clock, but it was long after that that his medical adviser was found and permission given to the police to see Reilly. He will remain there over night, a guard remaining with him. Reilly has been a patient there since Monday.

Why They Skipped.

The World called at Francis Reilly's home this afternoon. His name was visible to where he is. The Chief of Police Baillie had a warrant for his arrest on Sunday night, and the flight of Reilly was a matter of course. The police were looking for him in the streets, but he was not to be found. ### Fatality Inquest.

CONFLICT OF EVIDENCE BETWEEN TWO MOTORMEN

Inquest Begun on the Recent Queen St. Fatality—One Employee Blames Car Equipment.

The enquiry into the street car fatality on Thanksgiving Day opened last night at Poulton Hall, before Coroner Cotton. The accused were James Becknell, K.C., and James Bain, for the Toronto Railway Co.; T. C. Ross, K.C., for Motorman Armstrong; William Johnston, assistant city solicitor; W. A. Skeens, for the family of Russell Brower; W. B. Johnston and J. Harbord Denton for others of the injured, and W. W. Pope for the Grand Trunk Railway. Crown Attorney Drayton conducted the examination of witnesses. The hall was entirely inadequate to accommodate the crowds and the provision made for those interested was wretched. There was no attempt at ventilation, and the atmosphere was soon heavy enough to cause nausea. Among the interested spectators were Manager Keating and Chief Coroner Johnson. Detective Wallace also watched the proceedings.

Motorman's Story.

Motorman Armstrong told his story calmly and with every evidence of truth. He said the brakes and reverse had failed to work and that the regular man had reported the equipment bad. He did not look well and walked with a perceptible limp. His only apparent nervousness was the twitching of his hands but he was evidently great and his voice could not be heard even by the jury, coming repeating his answers.

What That? said William Strickland.

And in the space of a twinkling of an eye thereafter his brain and his life's blood were scattered in every direction. Fully 200 yards distant a fly-wheel had broken into pieces and hurled by the whirling momentum a portion of it, weighing, perhaps, 15 pounds, had hit his forehead. The fatal blow was struck when he had just started on his way to work.

Defenders Compelled to Retreat When Inter Defences Are Shattered by Enemy's Shells.

Tokyo, Nov. 22.—The fall of Port Arthur may now be regarded as imminent. The Russian forces practically all on the southern side of the city, encamped on the hills running out to the bay. On Sunday morning the Japanese were able to destroy the main defences on the southern side of Quail Hill and southwest of Bullin Mountain. This forced the retirement of the Russian defenders to the hills back of Port Arthur and into a series of entrenchments between Orting and Lauchichu. From these points and from Golden Hill the Russian artillery can dominate the City of Port Arthur and prevent its occupation, but the northern defences of the town are now shattered and every commanding hill is in possession of the Japanese troops.

It is feared that the steamer is founder in the gale on Saturday and Sunday. The schooner Orpheus, 100 tons, from Labrador for St. John's, with a crew of ten men, has met with the same fate.

THE SOVEREIGN BANK OF CANADA

38 King St. West, Toronto. Savings Department.

A CHEAP PROOF PROOF HOUSE.

The Sibley Gas Co., Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg, has put on the market a neat box, built something like an iron box, covered with a pyramidal roof, finished in galvanized iron, the whole standing about three feet high, with two feet into the ground, and occupying an area of 15 square feet, exclusive of the banking at an angle of 45 degrees, which rises to the spring of the pyramidal roof from the ground level. Inside is a stove, according to order, which goes through the coldest weather without a hitch. The advantage gained is that the byproduct is run off without handling, thus saving work in carrying "chunks" from cellar and nervous people, who ignorantly class Sibley with acetylene and other complex gas devices, such as gasoline, etc., have no cause to worry. The price is $25 extra over the catalog price of the machine purchased. Full details on writing, Head Office of Sibley Gas Co., Toronto.

Liberal Convention. LIBERALS CONVENE TO-DAY. THOS. BALLANTYNE TO RULE.

Temperance Folk Will Press for Abolition of the Bars Throat the Province.

Whatever may be the case in other respects, in point of numbers the Liberal convention which opens at ten o'clock this morning in Massey Hall is an assured success.

Over 100 delegates had registered at 10 o'clock last night at the Y.M.C.A., and 100 more are expected this morning. Between 300 and 400 is the lowest estimate made of the attendance of duly qualified delegates expected when the premier rises to make his opening address.

A list of the delegates already in the city would fill columns, but scarcely any prominent member of the party in Ontario will be absent to-day.

The special made up of three cars arrived from Brockville in the afternoon at 3 o'clock on which there were 120 delegates, Ottawa, the Sault, the Perth, the Elgin, the Hurons and Middlesex, London and the Lambton also had big delegations.

Good-Looking Lot. The delegates are for the most part a solid-looking lot of men, the majority of them inclining to the serene and yellow stage of experiment. It is a holiday trip for these veterans of 33 years in the saddle. They are up on business, and the business is Reform, and they are prepared to reform anything, and they will probably start with the party and its platform.

The hotels are full. Ten to twenty pages of the hotel registers are filled with visitors' names and to tonight when the Tory hosts begin to assemble, accommodation will be at a premium.

The Reform House, which is the headquarters of the delegates, Hon. George P. Graham was made the center of special attention by admirers and congratulations, vocal and veiled, were showered upon him. Hon. J. M. Gibson moved about among the crowd, and H. J. Pettipiece was another prominent figure.

Called by Kerr. As soon after ten o'clock as such a crowd can be brought to order Senator Kerr will call the convention to order as temporary chairman. The election of a permanent chairman will be the next business, and it is generally expected that ex-Speaker Ballantyne will receive the honor. Another name mentioned in that of ex-Mayor Leslie of London, a prominent wholesale merchant of that city, is also being mentioned as a possible choice.

The appointment of a nominating committee will follow.

OFF FOR CALIFORNIA. Montreal, Nov. 22.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier left this evening at 9 o'clock for California, the Grand Trunk System placing a special train for the occasion of the prime minister, who was accompanied by Senator David and the ministerial party. More of the Grand Trunk System was also one of the party.

KILLAM OR GIBBONS. Ottawa, Nov. 22.—Your correspondent understands on good authority that the choice of a chairman for the fall session will be either Justice Killam or the supreme court and Geo. Gibbons, K.C., of London.

ROSS STUDIES THE MOON. Premier Ross announced his new cabinet with the full moon. He will go to the country Dec. 20, two days before the next new moon.

FAIR AND MILD. Meteorological Office, Toronto, Nov. 22.—(8 p.m.)—A few light scattered showers have occurred to-day in the Ottawa and St. Lawrence valleys, but the weather in Canada to-day generally has been fair and everywhere mild.
