

poor, and the discount allowed to benevolent institutions in the purchase of books.

Our Agent, Mr. Thomas M. MacKelvie, has systematically visited the agencies throughout the province during the year, and by frequent correspondence has endeavored to stimulate the friends of the Bible Society to revived exertion on its behalf.

Your committee has recently issued an appeal by circular to the Branches and to the city churches, and hopes for a liberal response. The Committee has lost none of its members during the year, and has added the name of Mr. James E. Barnes. For the measure of success which has attended their operations the members of the Committee record their gratitude.

J. CLAWSON,
SECRETARY.

St. John, N. B., January 10th, 1895.

To the

GENT

As
devote soon a among 3rd, an
Count

Any
postag
sible,
too pr
an un

I ac
and ob Branch

We
promis
in the
of that and yo welcom
the re
Branch

The
small a

I ho
obtain
that y
tion fr

I ac
the Br
given
show c