

contributing to the benevolent and missionary enterprises of the Church, and I sincerely trust that, year by year, this growth will continue.

The Sunday School has been well sustained, but there is still room for increase, especially in the Bible Classes connected with it. I invite the youth of the congregation to avail themselves of this opportunity for the study of the Word of God, and also to join actively with the members of the Young People's Society in its endeavour to promote an earnest and intelligent Christian spirit.

You will be pleased to know that the Glebe Mission, under the able pastorate of Rev. Mr. Winfield, has enjoyed a steady growth, and that the outlook is most encouraging.

I gratefully acknowledge the ready assistance of many in different departments of Church work. I confess my need of such stimulus in order to the most effective and hopeful discharge of the duties of my ministry. And my prayer is that the Spirit of God may fill us all with fresh power and earnestness to go forth as true labourers in the vineyard of our common Lord.

Your affectionate pastor,

W. T. HERRIDGE.
