

New, Interesting and Important!

"HOUSES OF GLASS,"

BY WALLACE LLOYD (Dr. Jas. Algie).

"Human nature as we know it speaks everywhere. The book is an interesting study of human life."—Boston Ideas.

"A book of interest and importance to Canadian readers of fiction."—Toronto Globe.

PAPER, 50c.

CLOTH, $1.00.

"Lunatic at Large,"

BY J. STORER CLONSTON.

"A notable contribution to the gaiety of nations."

—Toronto Globe.

"One of the best bits of light reading of the day."

—Toronto Globe.

PAPER, 50c.

CLOTH, $1.00.

"Vizier of the Two-Horned Alexander,"

BY FRANK R. STOCKTON.

"Half fanciful, half humorous, and wholly pleasing."

—Toronto Globe.

PAPER, 50c.

CLOTH, $1.00.

"Terence,"

BY MRS. B. M. CROKER.

"'Terence' is delightful."—Mercury.

"A spirited story of a dashing Irish lover."

—Vanity Fair.

PAPER, 50c.

CLOTH, $1.00.

"The Crown of Life,"

BY GEO. GISSING.

"In situation and in character the book maintains throughout a steady excellence and unflagging interest."

—Toronto Globe.

PAPER, 50c.

CLOTH, $1.00.

To be had from your Bookseller, or
Sent post-paid on receipt of Price by

W. J. GAGE & Co., Limited,
Publishers, Toronto.