

The Evening Times Star

VOL. XIII. No. 52—PAGES ONE TO EIGHT

ST. JOHN N. B., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1916

SIXTEEN PAGES—ONE CENT

RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE SUCCESSFUL, REPORTED FROM CZAR'S CAPITAL

Situation in Roumania Still Regarded as Critical, However, Though Ferdinand's Army Has Made Stand

Petrograd, Dec. 1.—The Russian offensive has been successful, along the whole Roumanian frontier south of Kilitbaba, says the official statement issued today by the Russian war department. In spite of violent German counter-attacks, the statement adds, the Russians occupied the whole range of heights...

SENSATIONAL CASE IN COURT

Girl Held as Witness and Several Men Are Under Arrest

There is pending in the police court a case that promises startling developments as the details are brought out. A girl, who has not yet reached the age of 16 years, is the complainant and there are five men, some of whom are married, that may have to face a serious charge...

INSPECTOR JONES WAS REPORTED BY A POLICEMAN

His Rights Equal to One Who Reported Him, as is Established by Statute

Two by-law matters were before Magistrate Ritchie this morning. J. B. Jones, license inspector, was before the court upon a report from Policeman McLeese, on charge of obstructing the sidewalk in Charlotte street and not moving on when asked to do so by the policeman...

One Wins Military Cross, Cousin Gets Promotion in Rank

PTE RALPH H. GALE CAPT. JOHN R. GALE

Private Ralph H. Gale and Captain John R. Gale, cousins, here won distinction with Canadian units in France. The former has been awarded a military cross for conspicuous bravery under fire during the recent Somme offensive...

The many friends of Pte. Ralph H. Gale will be pleased to hear that he has been awarded the military cross for conspicuous bravery under fire during the recent Somme offensive...

German Consul To Go On Trial Next Monday

Four of Bopp's Official Family Also Charged in Connection With Alleged Bomb Conspiracy

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—Supporting witnesses for the United States District Attorney Preston said that about 250 men and women would be summoned by the government in the case, which is set for next Monday. The names of witnesses were not announced, but Mr. Preston said some would come from as far east as New York...

ANXIETY IN ATHENS

Vienna, Nov. 30, via London, Dec. 1.—The Russians are attacking incessantly and in great force along the eastern Transylvania front in an effort to relieve the Roumanians, according to an official statement issued by the war office.

Petrograd Hopeful

Petrograd, Nov. 30, via London, Dec. 1.—The violent attack begun by the Russians in the Carpathians which, if successful, will menace the rear of the Transylvanian Austro-German armies, is expected by military critics here to relieve the pressure upon Roumania and possibly avert the crisis caused by the concentric advance on Bucharest...

Bulgars Claim Victory

Sofia, Nov. 30, via London, Dec. 1.—The Bulgarians have sanguinarily defeated the Roumanians in hand-to-hand fighting and captured two twenty-one centimetre guns, according to the official statement by the war office today.

Western Front

Paris, Dec. 1.—Today's official report says there was no change during the night in the situation on the front in France.

Serbian Hold Them

Paris, Dec. 1.—A violent counter-attack was made by German and Bulgarian troops yesterday on the Macedonian front near Grunisch, east of the Cetina River bend. The war office announces that the Serbians succeeded in retaining all their positions except one trench.

British Report

London, Dec. 1.—Last evening the enemy attempted to raid our trenches south of Neuve Chapelle but were driven off," says today's official report from the Franco-Belgian front.

Lieut. Haining Missing

Fredericton, Dec. 1.—Mrs. James Bird received word last night notifying her that her son, Lieut. J. Talmage Haining of the Royal Flying Corps, was reported missing. Lieut. Haining, who had been living in the west, went to England at his own expense and joined the flying corps. He had been on the firing line since September.

Sons of Temperance

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 1.—The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, continued its sessions here today. At this morning's session H. H. Stuart of Newcastle submitted a report of the Kent-Norumberland Division. Several delegates were appointed to attend a meeting of the New Brunswick Branch Temperance Alliance in Sussex on December 6.

Canada's Fire Loss

Toronto, Dec. 1.—The Monetary Times' estimate of Canada's fire loss during November amounted to $228,335, as compared with $1,087,980 for the corresponding period of last year.

THOUSANDS OF FAMILIES IN EASTERN PART OF COUNTRY BEGGED BY FLOODS

Madrid, Dec. 1.—Serious floods are ravaging eastern Spain, particularly the provinces of Valencia, At Arles, the rivers and the people took refuge on roofs and church steeples.

NOON DAY FIRE IN THE WESTERN UNION BUILDING

Fire broke out about 12.30 o'clock today in the Western Union Telegraph Company's building at the corner of King street and Market square and did damage to the extent of several hundred dollars.

WHO HAS SEVEN AND HALF TONS OF BUTTER?

At the drawing in the Imperial last evening, while referring to some features of the high cost of living, Commissioner McLellan said that he had been informed that a St. John man had hoarded that he has seven and a half tons of butter stored away and that he expects to hold it until he can secure seventy-five cents a pound for it.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT OF AUSTRALIAN COAL STRIKE

Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 1.—Under the agreement which ended the coal miners' strike, the miners are assured of an eight hour day and the abolition of double shifts. The owners are compensated by an increase in selling price.

FUNERAL OF EMPEROR

Vienna, Nov. 30.—Via London, Dec. 1.—In the presence of Emperor Charles, the young Crown Prince Francis Joseph Otto, the kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria and Saxony, the German Crown Prince and a large number of Prussian princes and special envoys from neutral governments the body of Emperor Francis Joseph was buried this afternoon.

WON MUCH PRAISE

Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson arrived home last evening from Fredericton, where she has been in connection with the presentation of "The Climber" and a particular mention has been made of her tableau, "The Death of the Black Eagle," in which Miss Kathryn Gallivan sang the Marsellaise in French.

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

MORE DEPORTATIONS OF BELGIANS REPORTED

London, Dec. 1.—It is reported from Pauquembourg, says a Heuter despatch from Amsterdam, that the met. inhabs. of Hasselt and Lanaye, Belgium, between the ages of seventeen and fifty, and also girls and women possessing sewing machines, are to be deported to Germany.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

CRUSADE DAY

The Women's Society of Waterloo Street Church, observed Crusade Day yesterday. In the evening a meeting was held in the vestry at which the president, Mrs. F. H. Wentworth presided.

LETTERS FROM TWO MONCTON OFFICERS

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 1.—Lieut. W. D. Atkinson, of Moncton, writing from Shoemitch Camp, England, to George B. Sangster, says that "the end seems a long way off yet, and great numbers of men will be required."

CASE OF ABANDONED BABE

A young woman, arrested in Moncton yesterday on charge of deserting her young babe here, is now at police headquarters and is now occupying special quarters that have been arranged for her by Police Master Ross.

PHLETT AND PERDINAND

Phlelt and Perdinand. PHLETT AND PERDINAND. PHLETT AND PERDINAND. PHLETT AND PERDINAND.

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

MAY DISPUTE VOTE OF CREDIT

Prospect of Opposition in Parliament When Asquith Asks for More

PART OF SPAIN UNDER WATER

Madrid, Dec. 1.—Serious floods are ravaging eastern Spain, particularly the provinces of Valencia, At Arles, the rivers and the people took refuge on roofs and church steeples.

NOON DAY FIRE IN THE WESTERN UNION BUILDING

Fire broke out about 12.30 o'clock today in the Western Union Telegraph Company's building at the corner of King street and Market square and did damage to the extent of several hundred dollars.

WHO HAS SEVEN AND HALF TONS OF BUTTER?

At the drawing in the Imperial last evening, while referring to some features of the high cost of living, Commissioner McLellan said that he had been informed that a St. John man had hoarded that he has seven and a half tons of butter stored away and that he expects to hold it until he can secure seventy-five cents a pound for it.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT OF AUSTRALIAN COAL STRIKE

Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 1.—Under the agreement which ended the coal miners' strike, the miners are assured of an eight hour day and the abolition of double shifts. The owners are compensated by an increase in selling price.

FUNERAL OF EMPEROR

Vienna, Nov. 30.—Via London, Dec. 1.—In the presence of Emperor Charles, the young Crown Prince Francis Joseph Otto, the kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria and Saxony, the German Crown Prince and a large number of Prussian princes and special envoys from neutral governments the body of Emperor Francis Joseph was buried this afternoon.

WON MUCH PRAISE

Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson arrived home last evening from Fredericton, where she has been in connection with the presentation of "The Climber" and a particular mention has been made of her tableau, "The Death of the Black Eagle," in which Miss Kathryn Gallivan sang the Marsellaise in French.

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

PHLETT AND PERDINAND

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

MAY DISPUTE VOTE OF CREDIT

Prospect of Opposition in Parliament When Asquith Asks for More

PART OF SPAIN UNDER WATER

Madrid, Dec. 1.—Serious floods are ravaging eastern Spain, particularly the provinces of Valencia, At Arles, the rivers and the people took refuge on roofs and church steeples.

NOON DAY FIRE IN THE WESTERN UNION BUILDING

Fire broke out about 12.30 o'clock today in the Western Union Telegraph Company's building at the corner of King street and Market square and did damage to the extent of several hundred dollars.

WHO HAS SEVEN AND HALF TONS OF BUTTER?

At the drawing in the Imperial last evening, while referring to some features of the high cost of living, Commissioner McLellan said that he had been informed that a St. John man had hoarded that he has seven and a half tons of butter stored away and that he expects to hold it until he can secure seventy-five cents a pound for it.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT OF AUSTRALIAN COAL STRIKE

Melbourne, Australia, Dec. 1.—Under the agreement which ended the coal miners' strike, the miners are assured of an eight hour day and the abolition of double shifts. The owners are compensated by an increase in selling price.

FUNERAL OF EMPEROR

Vienna, Nov. 30.—Via London, Dec. 1.—In the presence of Emperor Charles, the young Crown Prince Francis Joseph Otto, the kings of Bulgaria, Bavaria and Saxony, the German Crown Prince and a large number of Prussian princes and special envoys from neutral governments the body of Emperor Francis Joseph was buried this afternoon.

WON MUCH PRAISE

Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson arrived home last evening from Fredericton, where she has been in connection with the presentation of "The Climber" and a particular mention has been made of her tableau, "The Death of the Black Eagle," in which Miss Kathryn Gallivan sang the Marsellaise in French.

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

PHLETT AND PERDINAND

WEATHER REPORT

Synopsis—Pressure is high over the southern portion of the continent while a mild disturbance is centred north of Lake Superior, and another of more importance is moving northeastward near Sable Island.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD ILL BUT HAD GOOD NIGHT

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, who is seriously ill at his home here, following an operation a week ago for appendicitis, passed a comfortable night. It was said that he had a slight rally last night and that seemed better since then.

