Swarthmore Professor Says
He Discovered Jews'
Camping Place

MEYERSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 13.—Dr. William T. Ellis of Swarthmore announces that he has discovered Kadesh-Barnea, the camping place of the children of Israel in the Sinai wilderness, Arabia, where Moses struck water from the rock and whence the twelve spies were sent into Canaan. Dr. Ellis, who recently returned after ten months of exploration in biblical lands, made his announcement in an address at the United Evangelical Church here.

Hitherto maps had identified Kadesh-Barnea with Kadesh, Dr. Ellis said, but he asserted that the latter was an impossible site, without adequate water, vegetation or camping space. He offered evidence that Kadesh-Barnea, another way, or depression in the plain, was the scene of this momentous experience in the life of the Jews.

Dr. Ellis said that a great head of water still flowed from the rock wall of the Wady Ain Guderat, the only spring of its kind in Sinai. So copious was this flow that during the war the Turks piped the water for more than twenty miles down into the desert to supply their troops, who were attacking the Suez Canal.

As in the Bible, the valley of the water discovered Kadesh-Barnea was still called in Arabic "the King's highway," Dr. Ellis said.

Kadesh, mentioned in the Book of Numbers and situated at the mouth of Wady Ain Guderat, were examined by Dr. Ellis, who said the site "exactly conforms" to the narrative in the Old Testament.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OF MAIN ST. HAS 708 ENROLLED

W. J. McAlary Is Chosen
Superintendent at Annual Meeting

An enrollment of 708 was reported at the annual meeting of the Main Street Baptist church Sunday school, held last night. That figure showed an increase of 81 over the enrollment of the previous year and the school was believed to be the largest among the Protestant churches in the city.

The enrollment is divided in the various groups as follows: Officers, 13; teachers, 32; cradle roll, 92; beginners, 38; primary department, 86; juniors, 48; intermediates, 38; seniors and adults, 226; home department, 80 and C. G. I. T., 45. The superintendent, W. J. McAlary, presided at the meeting which was preceded by an excellent supper served at 6:30. Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Richardson were present and both spoke briefly giving some very helpful hints regarding Sunday school work.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Superintendent, W. J. McAlary; assistant superintendent, A. A. Rablitt; secretary, George Estey; assistant secretary, Ralph Todd; treasurer, E. F. MacDonald; pianist, Miss Hazel Flewelling; assistant pianist, Miss Marjorie Christie; superintendent of the primary department, Miss B. A. Rablitt; superintendent of the C. G. I. T., Miss Ada Francis; auditors, Miss Margaret Cowan and Miss Mary Thorne. The superintendent of the cradle-roll and the home department are to be elected later.

Plans for the formation of a Sunday school choir were discussed and the suggestion was heartily approved. The reports presented showed that the year which had just closed had been highly successful.

TRUE BILL IS FOUND IN CORMIER CASE

AMHERST, Oct. 12.—True bills were returned by the grand jury at the full session of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, in the case of the King vs. Edward Cormier of Shediac. The case was postponed until the spring session of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court.

Cormier is charged with reckless driving resulting in bodily harm to Mrs. Mowatt, of Fredericton, in a motor collision one mile from Amherst, Aug. 29.

OBSERVANCE OF TRAFALGAR DAY IS ENDORSED

Resolution Adopted by St.
George's Society—New
Bishop Congratulated

A resolution, expressing approval and endorsement of the plans for observing Trafalgar Day as Navy Day, was passed unanimously by St. George's Society at its well attended meeting last evening in the Knights of Pythias Hall, when a telegram of congratulation on his election as Bishop of Calgary was forwarded to Rev. L. H. Sherman, a former chaplain of the society. The president, H. W. Rising, was in the chair. Several applications for membership were received.

The president gave the report of the charitable committee and stated that many deserving cases in need that had come to the notice of the committee were relieved by the society's grant during the summer months.

The sympathy of the society was extended to the families of the late members, H. B. Robinson and William A. Jack.

Colonel E. T. Sturdee, V.D., spoke of the observance of Trafalgar Day and of the good work being done by the Navy League in this matter. The resolution, expressing the hope that the citizens would co-operate in the observance and continue to reverend Lord Nelson, was moved by R. G. Schofield and passed unanimously. P. E. Huntington brought to the attention of the meeting Don Sherman's election as Bishop of Calgary.

After adjournment refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed by the members.
