MAKING PLANS FOR BUSY SEASON

St. Peter's Division of Catholic Women's League Outlines Activities For Coming Months.

The St. Peter's division of the Catholic Women's League, at its meeting held in the league's room in Douglas, made plans for many businesses in the near future. Encouraging reports were heard from the various committees. The president, Miss M. H.
McCluskey, was in the chair and there was a very large attendance. Mrs. Alice Phillips and Mrs. J. P. Quinn were elected additional members of the executive, and the name of Miss Mary MacDonald was added to the publicity committee.
The treasurer reported the finances of the division in a splendid condition.
As one of its undertakings the league planned for the organization of a class for teaching sewing to young girls. The class is to be conducted by Miss Alice Dwyer, who will be the convener. Her assistants for the first month will be Miss Annie Carlyn, Mrs. F. Fitzgerald and Miss R. Kierlin.
The league planned to take charge of a booth at St. Peter's High tea, and Mrs. M. Corkery was appointed the convener of the booth, with Mrs. O'Connell as assistant. A committee of three ladies for each night was chosen to assist with the booth. A pantry sale was arranged to take place December 12.
Miss S. Lynch was named as general convener with a committee of eight.
An entertainment was planned for all the members in the near future.
A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a paper by Miss F.
Kierlin at the piano.
