MAINTAIN ROADS

Ontario Minister Tells Convention of County Road Superintendents and Engineers of the Future Policy.

"When an inspector from the high-ways department hereafter goes out to look over the conditions of your roads in the country during the fall or any other time of the year and finds that you have neglected to keep up continuous maintenance, we are going to cut off your maintenance grant on any road found in such a condition." This was the warning given by Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of highways, to the county road superintendents and engineers at their sixth anual conference.

"I have made up my mind," declared sixth anual conference.

"I have made up my mind," declared the minister, "that a system of maintenance must be carried out in all the countles which expect to receive a grant from the government. From what I have seen of the roads in the States, and from books and reports of the nighway?

Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

Villages Get Free Road.

Another important announcement made by the minister was in reference to the percentage of cost which was to be charged against villages through the trans-provincial highway passes. "We want to make some charges where the highway, passes through the smaller villages," said Mr. Biggs. "We smaller villages of 1,500 populastion or less without asking that village splendid.

PROFITEERING

Before the war, Zam-Buk was 50c. a box. All during the war, whee the cost of production was rapidly advancing, the price of Zam-Buk to the consumer remained the same. Now, with the war over, while some prices continue to soar, Zam-Buk is still 50c. a box! Not only so, but the same high standard of quality has been maintained throughout.

There has been no profiteering

There has been no profiteering in regard to Zam-Buk. For every box you have bought, you have been asked to pay fair value only. Is this method of doing business not worthy of recognition? Answer this question by continuing to recommend, to appreciate, and to use Zam-Buk—the greatest household healer of modern times. with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. Use it for all skin troubles, eczema, ringworm, abscesses, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, blood-poison-ing, chapped hands, cold sores, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, etc.

to contribute one cent to the expense of building that portion of road. We don't ask them to go to any extra expense."

He exhorted the counties to adopt the same rule in building their county and county provincial roads through the smaller towns and villages, and intimated if the municipalities and counties would co-operate in this regard the government would be willing to pay a share of the cost of constructing the road through the villages.

Increase Maintenance Percentage.

Hon, Mr. Biggs further announced that it was the policy of his department to increase the maintenance grant on suburban area roads from 20 per cent. to 40 per cent. He stated that as maintenance was one of the big factors in road building this new provison was necessary and justifiable.

"The new government wishes your co-operation," stated Mr. Biggs, "and we will give you a greater latitude in the amount of percentage and assistance than you have ever had from any other government. We want the heads of the counties to understand that we are a unit for better roads in Ontario. And to work out our road policy we are going to amend the existing legislation."

Hon. Mr. Biggs said that in order to keep the people on the farms roads must be built. "If the farm were made a pleasant place to live," he continued, "we wouldn't have to coax them to stay there, and the day would arrive when there wouldn't be enough acreage to go all around." Increase Maintenance Percentage.

COUNT FIFTY! NO NEURALGIA PAIN

COMMERCE DEGREE

The New Course Which Is to Be Instituted at University of Toronto.

A Bachelor of Commerce degree will be instituted at the University of Toronto next year. The new course which will be affiliated with the faculty of arts, is designed to give the best and the most thorough preparation for students who wish to enter business life. The idea has been under discussion for some time, and the initial steps were taken at a meeting yesterday afternoon of the council of the faculty of arts.

The Bachelor of Commercial course will include some radical departures from the arts course. The defails are mostly tentative as yet, as only the entrance requirements and the first year have been decided upon. As now in the arts course, it will take four years for the Bachelor of Commerce degree. To enter the course, a prospective student will need honor junior matriculation as well as pass junior mat (Toronto Clobe.) Oriental Cream throughout will be given to commercial subjects though, with special emphasis on modern languages, and doing away with Greek, although Latin will remain

Nashua, N. H., March 5—William Busmiewski's little girls, Ann and Julia, four and three years of age respectively, were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the upper part of a three-story tenement block at 53 Factory street.

Their mother was at work in a cotton mill and the father, who was caring for the children had left them in the tenement while he went to a grocery store. When he returned the building was in flames, and—he was unable to reach his rooms on the upper floor.
