FIN'S NEW REMEDY FOR COMBATING HEMORRHAGES

Stockholm, March 19—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Discovery, by Professor Rudolf Fiechil of the Prague, of a new remedy for combating hemorrhage is announced by the Journal of the Austrian Apothecaries' Association. The remedy is made from a hitherto unknown element in the lung-tissue of certain animals. It is a reddish brown powder which dissolves in water into a foaming, slimy substance.

After a series of experiments with animals it has been employed on human beings. It is reported to stop quickly the most dangerous hemorrhages, such as those from the liver, kidneys, and brain substance, and to be especially valuable in the case of the so-called haemophilic persons whose blood is deficient in coagulable elements and for whom the slightest cut means serious and possibly fatal hemorrhage.

Mrs. Emmeline Penkhurst: "Many munition women have gone on the work, not out of any desire to make money, but to help the nation, and others have gone into the works because their men folk were fighting in France. It appears to me that it is the women who will have to save the country now."

Fifty-one boys were present at the last meeting for the season at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday morning. Lou Buckley addressed the boys.

PREMIER BORDEN BACK

Ottawa, Ont., April 28—Sir Robert Borden returned today from New York where he spent Friday and Saturday conferring with Sir Thomas White and Lord Reading in regard to financial matters. It is understood an important announcement as to the nature of negotiations in New York will be made in connection with the presentation this week of the budget by Hon. A. K. MacLean, acting minister of finance.

It is presumed that, while in New York, the prime minister also conferred with the minister of finance as to new taxation proposals to be made in the budget, which, it is expected, will be delivered on Tuesday, although there is a possibility that it may go over until Thursday.

War Garden Bulletin
PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT LOT AND BACK-YARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREATER PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN

TO WAR GARDENERS

The Canada Food Board has arranged with officials of the Experimental Farm at Ottawa for a daily bulletin which will be of practical assistance to residents who have undertaken to produce their own vegetables in back yard and vacant lot gardens. These little notes will be short, seasonal and to the point. They will contain daily suggestions as to the next most pressing duty of the day. In some districts the season is earlier than in others. Readers will, therefore, be able to tell at a glance whether they are up to date with the general programme or whether they are ahead, and govern themselves accordingly.

The subjects touched on will include tools, seed beds, fertilizers, seeds, weeds, pests, cultivation and such other information as will be suggested in the course of the season by experts in practical gardening. By following these hints it is hoped that the most inexperienced gardener will be sure of a good crop of vegetables this summer. The shortage of which threatens to be a calamity in Europe and a danger to our success in the war. And the health of our own people will be improved. Watch for the daily bulletin to war-time gardens.

SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED.

Returned soldier lads of St. David's church, to the number of a dozen or more, together with representatives of five military and naval units, were entertained by the Brotherhood of St. David's at a war supper at Bond's on Saturday night. Between eighty and ninety soldiers and civilians sat down at the tables, the chair being taken by the president of the brotherhood, R. E. Armstrong. When supper had been dispensed with and the King's toast loyally honored, short addresses of welcome and appreciation were delivered to the returned men by the chairman and Rev. J. A. McKeigan. Then followed a toast to the guests. This was responded to very felicitously by Lieut. H. O. Evans, Lieut. Roberts (of the navy), Private James Newlands (Pioneers), Sergeant Belyea (Siege Battery), Sergeant-Major D. W. Stewart, Lt. Groves and J. Porter, three members of the famous 29th Battalion.
