In the 135 pound class there will be Kennedy, Farrell Britt, Reg. Harper and Franklin. All four are exceptionally clever and the result of these bouts will be awaited with more than ordinary interest.

There are five entries in the 147 pound class and there is a possibility that some real talent will develop. On the whole the programme is one of the best balanced ever held in the city. The interest that is already being manifested in the meet would indicate that a capacity crowd will tax the Armory. A full list of the participants will be published as soon as the entries close and will give fans an idea of the treat in store.

A field of even 25 starters would not be too large. The track is at least 120 feet wide at the starting point and the field has a quarter of a mile to run before making the first turn, which also is very wide.

Exterminator, Paul Jones, Sir Barton and Old Rosebud, holder of the record for the race, all set the pace or were within striking distance. Regret, the only filly that ever won the Derby, romped down the field in front in 1915. Thus, turfmen point out, jockeyship, while always a factor, seems to have been of most value at the barrier.

Western owners have won the Derby but twice in the 49 times it has been run; Old Rosebud in 1914, when he set the record of 2.03 2-5 for the mile and a quarter, and E. R. Bradley's Behave Yourself. Favorites won in fewer than half the races.
