Mrs. T. E. Powers was a charming hostess this week at a tea in honor of her cousin, Miss Katherine Atcheson, who is a teacher in the schools of San Francisco, Cal. Mrs. Powers' pretty home at Second avenue was decorated with white lilacs and was very attractive for the cozy time enjoyed by a few guests, many of whom were teachers in the St. John schools, invited to meet Miss Atcheson. Mrs. F. L. Jennings, presided over the tea at the prettily appointed table.

Mrs. W. J. Mahoney entertained at a very pretty reception and tea yesterday afternoon at her home, 17 Paddock street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Warren L. Gray, a recent bride, and Miss Mary Phillips, of Lynn, Mass., who was a bridesmaid at Mr. Gray's wedding. Mrs. Mahoney was gowned in handsome Mexican brown georgette with gold lace overskirt and with a large bow of lovely shaded ribbon tied at the left side, giving a smart effect. Mrs. Gray wore an exquisite gown of Madonna blue georgette with yoke of cerule lace, the skirt having wide bands of the lace. She wore a beautiful necklace of pearls. Miss Phillips was daintily in a light blue tulle gown and with overskirt of creamy Margot lace made in bustle effect, over the silk. The tiny roses of rosy ribbon, with ribbon flowers and delicate streamers of narrow ribbon made a lovely combination of colors. Ophelia roses were placed in the drawing room, where the light was from yellow candles.

Miss Mamie McLaughlin, sister of the hostess and the bride, ushered the guests. She was wearing a handsome gown of old blue georgette over a slip of the same shade and embroidered very artistically in steel. Her hat, becomingly turned off the face, was of black mulling and steel, and large grey hat trimmed with French flowers of rosy hue, and Mrs. Parnell McCafferty, in a pretty gown of flame-colored georgette over the same shade of satin, with pretty picture hat trimmed with large white asprey, presided over the tea and coffee cups.

Those who served were Miss Marion Power, Miss Grace Doherty, Mrs. Edward Cronin, Mrs. John McCuskey and Mrs. John Doherty, of Montreal. About 120 guests called during the afternoon. Mrs. Gray will hold her post-nuptial reception later.

ST. LUKE'S AND CENTENARY S. S. PICNICS HELD

St. Luke's Sunday school picnic was held yesterday at Crystal Beach and was the largest and most successful in the history of the school since the picnics were first held at up-river resorts. Between 700 and 800 attended. The first detachment left on the majestic and another followed in the afternoon on the Hampton, the whole company returning to the city in the evening on the D. J. Purdy I. H. Usher Miller, superintendent, was in charge and was assisted by W. E. Craft and H. A. Clinch. The convener of the women's committee, which attended to the refreshments, was Mrs. Ida Dunlop. There were races and sports for everyone and a lengthy prize list. Rev. R. P. McKim, rector, and Rev. C. P. Heaven, curate, were on hand to assist in making the picnic a thorough success. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the outing which was admirably arranged.

At Drury Cove. Seventy-five junior and primary children of the Centenary Sunday School enjoyed their annual picnic yesterday afternoon, going in automobiles to Drury Cove. They included in their number several carloads of children from the British street Protestant Orphanage. Miss Frost, matron, and her sister, Miss Margaret Frost, were guests of honor. The merry cavalcade of cars could not get away too soon for the eager children. Rev. Robert G. Patton, pastor, helped in getting everybody properly placed and assisted at the grounds, where prizes were given to nearly everybody for some feat of skill. The bountiful supper was greatly enjoyed and the children were distributed at their homes on the return at 7 o'clock, very tired but thoroughly satisfied with their outing. The junior and primary teachers took charge and were assisted by several interested mothers and friends of the Sunday School. The cars for the event were donated by members of the church.

LOSE WEIGHT.

One baked apple, 1 2-inch square of lean broiled ham, vegetable salad (1 cupful), 6 baked oysters, 1 small baked potato, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 1 whole medium sized parsnip steamed or boiled, 2 tablespoons stewed rhubarb, 1 bran muffin, 1 gluten roll, 2 pieces crisp whole wheat toast, 1 pint skimmed milk.

Total calories, 1089. Protein, 22.6; fat, 27.1; carbohydrate, 99.5. Iron, .0198 gram.

The vegetable salad combines most vegetables with the exception of canned peas, potatoes or corn. One tablespoon each of string beans, asparagus, carrots, beets, cauliflower, sliced celery and shredded green pepper combined with lemon juice and a dash of onion juice makes an appetizing mixture. Minced chives can take the place of the onion juice. The vegetables should be served on a bed of lettuce hearts or shredded leaf lettuce.

The rhubarb is suggested as a sort of dessert for dinner.

GAIN WEIGHT.

Two baked apples with 4 tablespoons maple sirup and 1/2 cup cream, 1 cup cooked wheat, cereal, 1/2-inch square broiled ham, 4 tablespoons hot potato salad, 1/2 head lettuce with Thousand

Island dressing, 1 cup cream of corn soup, 6 baked oysters with 6 tablespoons cream, 1 large twice baked potato, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 1 whole parsnip with 2 tablespoons butter, 2 halves candied sweet potato, 4 tablespoons maple puff pudding with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 2 tablespoons stewed rhubarb, 1 large piece sponge cake, 2 bran muffins, 2 pieces whole wheat toast, 2 dinner rolls, 1 pint whole milk, 4 tablespoons butter.

Total calories, 4182. Protein, 512.1; fat, 178.3; carbohydrate, 1857. Iron, .0177 gram.

The baked apples and cereal can be combined, making a delicious breakfast dish. Maple sirup instead of sugar will be a delightful change.

The oysters for both the menus are prepared practically the same. The cream is heated and poured over the toast for this menu after the oysters are removed from the oven. Plenty of butter is used on this toast.
