Agricultural, Domestic Economy, &c.

The following article originally appeared in an American paper; but the arguments it contains may be urged, with equal force, in reference, not only to the farmers, but to every head of a family in Nova Scotia:—

WHY FARMERS SHOULD TAKE A NEWSPAPER.—First.—From policy, and a due regard for their own interests. As the cultivators of the soil, it is but right that they should reap the benefit, when from the numerous cases of fluctuations in markets, the price of produce is above the ordinary value. But is this often the case? Do those, who by the sweat of their brow, have sowed and reaped, and gathered in the golden harvest, profit by the increased price of flour and other grains? On the contrary, is it not, in nine cases out of ten, the fortunate speculator, who by watching the foreign markets, and by his knowledge of affairs at home, steps in before the farmer and coolly pockets all the gains?—The latter, at home by his fireside, destitute of the important information, which a few Shillings might procure for him if expended on a good newspaper, sells his wheat at the usual price, little dreaming how much he is losing by the bargain, while the wiser speculator, makes a
