Governor-General and Novelist Inspect the Land.

ADVICE TO SIR WILFRID

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier visited the public school at Moose Jaw, he was met by a group of school children. He was greeted with a chorus of "Good morning, Mr. Laurier." He replied, "Good morning, children. How are you?"

The visit to the school was part of his tour of the province. He was accompanied by his wife and several members of his family.

During his visit, the Governor-General inspected the school buildings and talked with the teachers and students. He was particularly interested in the progress of the school.

His visit to the school was a success. The children were overjoyed to see him, and he was impressed by the high standards of the school.

The Governor-General's visit to the school was a testament to his interest in the education of the people of Canada.
