FARMERS DO NOT NEED LICENSE TO SELL BEEF, PORK AND OTHER HOME PRODUCTS

There have been so many regulations made during war times restricting farmers as to what they can eat, feed and sell, that now the war is over they are not very sure what liberties they at present have.

Planting was done from May 10th to 15th. Seasonal conditions favored an early growth and the crops continued to make very satisfactory growth throughout the growing season.

NEW COURSE IN AGRICULTURE IN THE MOOSE JAW COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

A special course in agriculture for farmers' sons will be commenced at the collegiate institute, Moose Jaw, on Monday, February 3rd, 1919, under the direction of Mr. L. E. Kirk, B.A., B.S.A.

Some interesting observations were made regarding the prevalence of heritable diseases in the seed stocks. These observations would indicate that some of the sources of local supply are badly infected.

About the only method of overcoming heritable diseases is to select disease-free seed stock. This can be done particularly during the growing season by eradication from the seed plot any affected plants and partially in the seed bin by discarding affected tubers.

A number of varieties were grown at the College. Those giving the best returns were the Early Ohio, Irish Cobler, Bovee, Table Talk, Gold Coin and Carman No. 1.

The use of some of the newer arsenicals, such as Arsenate of Lead, Arsenate of Lime and Calcium Arsenate, demonstrated that these materials, which are cheaper than Paris Green, were this year quite as effective in controlling the Potato Beetle and other leaf-eating insects.

This is an opportunity for farmers' sons who have not had the privilege of going to the Agricultural College, Saskatoon, to take a course of two or three months, until spring work opens up. We venture to say that they will become interested in the subjects of five stock and live stock judging, pure seed and seed-selection, tillage of the soil, weeds, etc., etc., that they will be ready to come back for another course the following winter.

Rooms and board can be easily secured in Moose Jaw for the two or three months' term at reasonable rates.

Farmers, give your boys and girls a chance.

MENNONITES GIVE SPLENDIDLY TO RED CROSS FUNDS

The Manitoba Red Cross has received during the last few months from the Somerset congregation of Mennonites of Alberta, Man., the sum of $46,000. It was announced today from the Provincial Red Cross headquarters in a statement.

As this congregation is made up of 4,432 members, the contribution amounts to over $7 per capita, the statement says. "In a former announcement this amount was erroneously stated as $6 per head, as the Red Cross was under the impression at that time that there were about 8,000 members in this particular congregation. The Rev. Bishop Derksen, of Alberta, desires it to be known that the congregation consists of only 4,432 members, and that each and every one of them gave his full mite."

No other community of Mennonites in the province has equalled or approached the record of the Somerset congregation, it is said. The excellent showing in a large measure, is attributed to the influence of Bishop Derksen.

The Mennonites of southern Manitoba during the last years of the war, although maintaining conscientious scruples in regard to personal participation, have contributed large sums of money outright to the Red Cross, always particularly specifying that the larger part of it should be used for widows, orphans and crippled funds. The Mennonite communities who came to Canada in 1874 came under a distinct treaty granting them freedom in religious beliefs. Their religion forbids their shedding of blood or participation in war. To maintain these principles they migrated from Holland to Germany, from Germany to Russia and thence from Russia to Canada. They came to Canada in 1874 only after prolonged negotiations conducted through the colonial secretary and with the distinct understanding that they would be entirely exempt from military service and that the fullest privileges would be granted to them in exercising their religious beliefs without molestation or restriction.

Through an understanding with Sir Thomas White, prior to the last Victory Loan, these people agreed to subscribe for the bonds of the government on the understanding that the money received from their subscriptions would be used for relief purposes. As a result the Mennonites subscribed a sum of probably more than $500,000.

Mr. Scott mentioned the long and comprehensive course of study that must be taken in the Colleges where osteopathy is taught, before the student can graduate. This course, he said, covers all the branches of medical science except that of drugs. This he thought, was ample protection to the public, especially in view of the fact that the provincial legislature had seen fit in 1913 to give them a definite legal standing.

This brought him to the point that appealed most strongly to his listeners, which was, that the appealed results of the passing of the "D.P.A." had been to exclude osteopaths from coming here to practise, consequently maintaining a monopoly to those practising medicine; and that this could be interpreted in no other way than that of an unwarranted interference with the right of the public to determine themselves the class of

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Eight persons are dead as the result of a fire in the Italian quarter. Father and mother and two small children were burned to death by a fire which started in the kitchen of a house occupied by two families, all of whom were asleep at the time. Two children of the other family were also burned to death and two died of their injuries.

To the Farmers of Western Canada. There is considerable low grade grain throughout the West this year and farmers who have the choice of grain as well as those who have less, hereby offer to ship should have to send that it will be to their advantage to ship to us as our long experience in the grain business and special connections that are being made, grain can also be sold as sample and, if the shipper wishes it, we are well equipped to handle it in this way. While we are not available, we feel that we are in a position to give our customers the best advice as to what to sell and all their grain will be wanted, and wanted badly this year therefore don't sell on street but ship your own grain. OUR ORGANISED GRAIN GROWERS

"The Courier" gladly gives publicity to these articles, as this paper always has been and still is a strong believer in the cause of the organized farmers of the west.

DEMAND RAILWAY FACILITIES

Sub-organizer Percy Arkle of Khedive discusses projected railway extensions in that portion of the Province as follows:

Among the news items of late was that of new surveys being made by C.P.R. surveyors in various districts. This will be welcome news to a large number of people, more especially to those in the districts concerned. But there will be a keen disappointment felt by another large body of people, in that their locality is seemingly forgotten; the settlers of South and South Western Saskatchewan. Comprising a large and important section of the province, these people have looked in vain for ten years or more for a railroad. Sought after by Canada, they have been neglected and ignored by the land of their adoption, and compelled to contribute to the land to the South. To all interests and purposes this part of the Province might as well be in the United States as far as the powers that be are concerned. Contributing of their sons, their wealth and time to uphold Canada and her institutions, these people merit some consideration and it behooves all right-minded men to see that justice is done to these long suffering patriots, instead of allowing their zeal to cool, and die, and despair to take its place. Surely the desire for railroads to be built in territory already well served is not based on justice to the largest number, but upon selfishness and indifference to the welfare of a patient, long suffering body of people.

CHIROPRACTORS ASK RECOGNITION

Fred Meling, of Baildon, Secretary of Catarauqui Local No. 153, in writing to the Central Association under recent date, says:

"Will you be so kind as to give the following matter the widest publicity and so oblige us; as the resolution is of great importance to our local members, and to the public generally.

DRUGLESS PRACTITIONERS. The resolution which was unanimously adopted, is as follows: "That this, the Catarauqui branch of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, find, that the passing of the Drugless Practitioners Act, by its inclusion of profession of Osteopathy, and its restrictions in regard to their practice has resulted in the practical exclusion from the province of Osteopaths other than those at present practising, and that consequently many persons desiring the services of Osteopaths have thereby been deprived of their inherent rights. We, therefore, call upon the government to amend the said bill, and restore to the profession the rights they held under the 'Osteopathy Act' with the right to issue Birth and Death Certificates."

Address by James Scott. Mr. James Scott, who moved the resolution, traced in detail the causes that led up to this legislation—the "Drugless Practitioners Act". He went back to the time
