The Expedition captured a Cotton ship fully laden, and other vessels ready to leave. Nearly all the Confederate officers captured were for merly in the United States service. The Federlists will hold Hatteras Inlet which is an important point as a hase for operations on Wilmington and other places on the Southern Rebels loss at the capture of Hatteras Forts was 15 killed and 35 wounded.

A late arrival from Antigua, one of the Brit ish West Indies Irelands, reports that a mob recently tore down and destroyed a Cofnederate flig which was flying from the building of the consignees of a Southern vessel.

There are many rumours of movements a Washington, but nothing definite. Both armies are preserving the profoundest secrecy with regard to their intentions. We may hear at any time of another great contest. The Northern government is exercising great vigilance in all its departments. Mayor Bennet, of Washington, has been sent to prison for refusing to take the oath of allegiance; and upwards of 227 government clerks and employees are to be dismissed for recession proclivities. They have also seized all the small boats on the Potomac, within 15 miles of Washington-over 400 in numberwith the double purpose of preven ing intercouses with the rebels, and of securing means for transporting troops when the occasion offers The army is receiving abundant supplies, and the condition of the troops improving. The addition of regiments to the army is being daily stantle occurring, which show that they are not far from the Northern lines, and that they have grown more inclined to take the offensive. A despatch dated on Friday spike of sharp skirmishing the day previous, in which cavalry, artillery, and infantry were engaged. Many Unionis's from the vicinity of Alexandria a e fleeing to Washington, and their presence in many other localities is made extremely uncom-fortable. The Herald's special correspondent now estimates the Southern forces in Virginia at 330,000 men, of whom 180,000 are concentrated on the Potomac, also that a column of 40,000 is preparing to cros that River into Maryland by ans of pontoons.

These papers in the North which favor the Southern Revolt, or a Compromise, or the recognition of the South have been and will be treat ed with a rigour extraordinary in a country which so borsted of the liberty of its press. Seven have been suppressed by mobs, five o them in New England—One editor tarred and feathered; and a large number of others have been threatened with the same treatment. In Philadelphia the "Christian Observer" office was closed by the U. S. Marshall for having opposed the "the present unholy war." In New York orders have been issued to the Postmaster not to forward by mail henceforth the New York Daily Journal of Commerce, the Daily and Weekly News, the Daily and Weekly Day-Book the Freeman's Journal, and the Brooklyn Daily Eagle. Newsdealers and expresses are also forbidden to transmit them.

Another success has been gained by the Southerners over the Federal troops in the Kana-wha region, Western Virginia. The battle occurred at Cross Lanes, near Summerville on the 26th ult., and resulted very disastrously for the Federals. The 7th. Onio Regt., under Col. Tyler, 900 strong, was; surrounded while at breakfest and attacked on both flanks and in front simultaneously. The Federal Force scattered after cutting their way through, but soon formed again and retired, but received no pursuit from the enemy. The Northerner's say th Confederates in this engagement numbered 3,000 infantry, 400 calvary and 10 guns, and that their loss was fearful-all exaggerated statements no doubt. The Northerners lost 200 men killed and wounded.

It is reported that Jefferson Davis died at Richmond, and that Pensacola Navy Yard has been retaken by Federlists; possibly they are
