ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 31, 1901. IT'S GOOD NEWS.

The Star today contains two items of news that will give great satisfaction to the citizens. One is that the C. P. R. company is putting forth great exertions to be in readiness to handle a largely increased business at West St. John this winter. The other is that a strong company is seeking incorporation to operate the cotton mills, and that the outlook for an early resumption of work in the mills appears very favorable. ... THE SMALL BOY'S DAY.

The thirty-first day of October is a red letter day in every boy's calendar. The celebration of Hallow E'en differs from every other in many respects. On Dominion Day and other such holidays his noise and mischief are expended in broad daylight, and on these days none appear to dare to molest him, or make him afraid. ... A CONGRESS TO CONSIDER THE SUBJECT OF SHOOTING AT CLOUDS TO PREVENT HAILSTORMS.

Ontario towns are legislating against the trading stamp. When it has been driven out some other scheme will take its place. The belief that something can sometimes be got for nothing has a strong hold on the minds of many people. ... WATER AND SEWERAGE.

A Virginia bank teller was paralyzed at his desk last Saturday. This is unusual. In United States it is usually the directors who are "paralyzed" after the teller has gone. ... THE PAN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE, now in session in the City of Mexico, will discuss the question of the suppression of anarchy.

CUTTING RATES.

A war is now on between the German and English steamship lines, and it bids fair to be a prolonged and bitter one. The trouble began by the Cunard line suspecting the German lines of cutting rates, and as no satisfactory explanation was forthcoming the home office lowered the rate ten dollars for first-class passage. ... THE FOLLOWING DESPATCH FROM CHICAGO suggests an easy method of reducing the cost of the city fire department.

Warned to leave their home by the South Chicago police, because smoke and flames from an adjoining building endangered their lives, G. E. Cummings, his wife and five children, believers in the Christian Science faith, remained where they were and prayed for deliverance. The house finally caught fire and still they refused to leave. ... THE ANNEXATION OF CUBA, it is said, will be asked for next month. The Cuban planters, it is claimed, in spite of the good sugar crops, will be ruined unless the taxation on export sugar is reduced or annexation is brought about.

It is announced that Frank Gould has decided to sell most of his dogs. He has a kennel of St. Bernards, valued at $30,000. Frank's dog tax doubtless weighs on his mind. It is stated that he will keep a few of his 45,000 dogs just for company, no doubt—and that the rest must go to people who will provide them with good homes. ... MR. DOOLEY, UMPIRE.

It is announced that the University of Chicago will undertake a new system of university extension work during the coming winter and the directors of the department hope to extend weekly lectures eventually to every city in the Mississippi Valley. ... A SPINDLE VICTORY.

"Thin th' war was renewed with great energy. Ye read in th' paper every day iv a tree-mendous engagement. Th' column under th' hon. Lord Gin'ral T. Puntington-Cannet today an' defeated with great loss the Kootzenhammer commando, consistin' of Mr. and Mrs. Kootzenhammer, th'ir son August, th'ir daughter Loma an' Baby Kootzenhammer, who was in ar-runs an' will be executed accordin' to th' decree iv May thir, thirteenth an' sixteenth an' June ninth, whin caught. Th' hon. Lord Gin'ral Puntington-Cannet reported that he captured with cow, wad duck, wad pound iv beans an' a baby carriage. The commando escaped."

"Then as to the recent proclamation: 'Lord Kitchener wrote th' notice. He's a good writer. Ladies an' Gintlemen, he says, 'this war as a war is now over. Ye may not know it, but it's so. Ye've broge th' rules, an' we claim th' right to ourselves on a fool. Th' first principle iv a war agin England is that th' infantry shall wear red or purple coats with black marks fr to indicate th' location iv th' vital organs be day an' a locomotive headlight be night. They shall thin gather with th'ir stags an' at th' word 'Fire' shall fall down dead. Any remainin' standin' afterward will be considered as spies. Shootin' back is not allowed be th' rules, an' is severely discommenced be our laden military authorities."

"So th'ere's th' finish th' Boers. They have been set back fr conductin' onbecomin' an English officer an' a gintlemen. Our Anglo-Saxon cousins across th' sea ar-re gr-rreat people. We have to lick our lummy. They disqualify him."

"We have all we require to satisfy our simple wants, as we have captured enough stores to last us a long time. It is only our horses that suffer during our long marches of 10 and 12 hours. 'God has chosen me to lead my brothers, and I shall fulfil my trust to the last.' ... A VERY BAD BOY.

Misses Fleming of Fairville, and Barry, of the city, attended the bride, and N. McLean of Carleton supported the groom. Miss Malone was becomingly attired in blue cloth, and pretty hat. The newly-wedded couple left on a honeymoon trip.

MR. DOOLEY, UMPIRE.

England Wins the Fight "On a Poul." "Mr. Dooley" is again witty at England's expense, but as the editor of the Westminster Gazette, which publishes his latest dialogues, Englishmen will not grudge the laugh. "Whin ray-spectable English people go to war, they don't expect to have to keep it up for ever. They've other things to do. But th' Boers suddintly stop. Manny attempts was made to conciliate thim. 'If ye will lay down ye'er ar-rms an' cut ye'er hair,' said Lord Roberts iv Candyhar an' Cork an' Pretoria an' th' dominyons beyond th' sea, an' forget Kruger an' learn to stand again a wall an' be shot. Oth-erwise,' he says, 'I'll soon have to take th'rastric measures agin ye,' he says.

"No," says th' Boers, 'we're sorry, but we must refuse ye'r kind words iv welcome. Nawthing wud give us more pleasure than to provide good target practice fr ye'er gallant in-ads,' they says, 'but gr-rreat as wud be th' honor of bein' buried in th' 'em-fack with a brass band to play over us, we like th' lead, free an' dishonorable life iv th' veldt.' "Well," says Lord Roberts iv th' city directry, 'if that's th' case, he says, 'I'm goin' home,' he says, 'I capture a few more cities fr me title,' he says. 'I never fought such a mob iv,' he says. 'I quit ye,' he says. An' he went away an' left Lord Kitchener to run th' game.

LETTER FROM DEWET. "God Has Chosen Me to Lead My Brothers."

GENEVA, Oct. 23.—A wealthy Swiss lady, at present staying at Lancy, a suburb of Geneva, lately received a letter from General Dewet. The letter was written at Modderfontein, on Aug. 18, and bears the Delagoa postmark. The Swiss lady lived for many years in the Transvaal, and knew the Boer general intimately.

In the course of the letter, General Dewet says: "God only knows when the war will end. I and my commando are determined to fight to the last. I see by the papers you sent me that both sides accuse each other of cruelty to prisoners. Don't believe these newspaper reports; they are false.

"Both sides treat their prisoners with as much consideration as possible under the circumstances. "We have all we require to satisfy our simple wants, as we have captured enough stores to last us a long time. It is only our horses that suffer during our long marches of 10 and 12 hours. "God has chosen me to lead my brothers, and I shall fulfil my trust to the last."

A CANADIAN IN BERMUDA. (Toronto Mail and Empire.) One of the most successful of Upper Canadian College Old Boys is Thomas S. Reid, who was head boy at the school in 1888. After leaving Toronto he lived for some years in Halifax, N. S., and then removed to Bermuda. He is now one of the most prominent wealthy men of the island. For a number of years he has been Mayor of Hamilton. He was instrumental in having the harbor made one of the finest in the world, and largely at his own expense, the Anglican cathedral at Hamilton was rebuilt, being now a very striking specimen of Gothic architecture. Two weeks ago Mr. Reid was appointed to the legislative council of Bermuda by direct command of King Edward VII. Mr. Reid's many friends in Toronto are pleased to learn of his continued success.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—Following are the returns of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the month ended September, 1901:—Gross earnings, $3,264,024; working expenses, $1,911,292; net profits, $1,352,732. In September, 1900, net profits were $1,055,700; and for three months ended September 13th, figures are as follows:—Gross earnings, $9,224,031; working expenses, $5,479,800; net profits, $3,744,231. For three months ended September 13th, 1900, there was a net profit of $2,897,550. The increase in net profits over the same period last year is therefore for September, $294,032; and from July 1st to September 13th, there was an increase of $756,681.
