GOOD THEATRICAL NEWS.

No book for years back has been read with more satisfaction or fine feeling than Ian MacLaren's Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush. Last year when that delightful story of simple Scotch life was enacted in York Theatre every person left the building the better for having seen it. Not only was the play itself an attraction, but the excellent company of players brought here by that venerable actor, J. H. Stoddart, made it an artistic triumph. Mr. Stoddart and the same company will be here within a few weeks to put on Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush even better than before.

DESSERTERS RETURNED.

The three deserters, Robert Nook, Michael Gailus and Karl Meimberchat, who ran away from the S. S. Montezuma, and were arrested and held in jail, were put on board this morning by Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen. They were a queer looking procession as they passed through the streets, the sailors handcuffed together and carrying their dunnage.

"BRITONS NEVER, NEVER, ETC."

A True Born Englishman Strikes for Liberty and Worries the Life of the Jailors.

Henry Felton, an erratic Englishman, who was sent to jail the other day having been accused of assaulting Clerk Bowman, of the Dufferin Hotel, is making the lives of the turnkeys and jail officials miserable. Felton started the fun in the police court, when he informed the magistrate that the expressions he used, involving the name of God in a condemnatory sense, were not profane. Since then he has been in jail, and all hands, from the sheriff down, wear a worried look. Felton started in by breaking up everything he could get his hands on, plates, cups, etc. In fact anything he could get his hands on and was breakable went to the wall. Matters reached such a state that he was put in the solitary pen where there was nothing but four stone walls. He could not break these, but if he looks and an energetic flow of language would accomplish anything it is a wonder that the jail walls still stand. That the man is not insane all seemingly agree, but that he is possessed of a perverse mind or a devil of a new and original kind there is no doubt.

VERY NICE TESTIMONIAL

For the Steiny and Nordheimer Pianos.

G. E. Prince, representing Steiny and Nordheimer pianos in this city, whose show rooms are located at John White's furniture store, 33 Charlotte street, has received the following letter, which speaks for itself, from F. G. Spencer, manager of the Nordica concert:

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 14th, 1904.

Mr. G. E. Prince,

Representing Steiny and Nordheimer Pianos,

St. John, N. B.:

My Dear Sir,

Madame Lillian Nordica, before leaving the city, desired that I express to you the very great satisfaction which both she and her accompanist, Mr. Simmons, experienced in using the splendid Steiny grand piano at the concert in St. John April 11th. As a matter of course Madame Nordica always prefers the Steiny when it is convenient to procure one.

Madame Nordica also wishes me to thank you for the Nordheim upright which you so kindly placed at her disposal for practice while in St. John, and I personally heard expressions of her approval.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) F. G. SPENCER.
