

ST. JOHN STAR.

Read Classified Ads on Page 3.

VOL. 6, NO. 264,

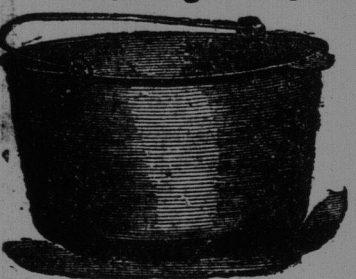

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1906.

EIGHT PAGES.

ONE CENT

PRESERVING TIME!

Best Quality Granite Iron Kettles.

3 QT.	20c. each.
4 QT.	25c. each.
5 QT.	30c. each.
6 QT.	35c. each.
8 QT.	40c. each.
10 QT.	45c. each.
12 QT.	50c. each.
14 QT.	55c. each.
16 QT.	60c. each.
24 QT.	90c. each.

MAULIN PRESERVING KETTLES.

4 Quart	40c.	8 Quart	65c.
5 Quart	45c.	9 Quart	70c.
6 Quart	50c.	10 Quart	75c.
7 Quart	55c.

ELITE ENAMEL KETTLES—Highest quality ... 35c. to $2.50 each.

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Steel Ceilings and Walls.

There is a Growing Demand For These Goods.

They are comparatively inexpensive, and are acknowledged to make the most durable and sanitary ceilings and walls one can have.

If you are building or making any alterations in your house, send the size of your rooms, and we will send you a free estimate of the cost of the work.

We are Maritime Province selling agents for one of the largest manufacturers. We import the goods in carload lots, therefore, we are able to fill the largest order the day it is received. Send for illustrated catalogue.

Emerson & Fisher

25 Germain St., St. John, N. B.
The hardware store where the "Enterprise" Monarch Steel Range is sold.

A MESSAGE OF VALUE TO YOU! Our SPECIAL SALE of MEN'S STYLISH SUITS

warrants prompt consideration from men who are discriminating—men to whom price is of no moment, unless it concerns garments that are imbued with the attributes of high class tailoring.

Prices, $6.50, $7.50, $8, $9 and $10.

Splendid range of patterns to select from.

American Clothing House,

NEW STORE,
11-15 Charlotte St.

STETSON HATS

The Famous John B. Stetson Hard and Soft Hats!

They need no introduction. This hat is sold by all others at $5.00. We sell it for $4.00. The only house in the lower Provinces where you can buy it at this price.

F. S. THOMAS, Dufferin Block,
Main St., N. E.

HARRY BAKER AND FRANKIE NEILL TO FIGHT 20 ROUNDS.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., July 24.—Harry Baker who won the title of amateur featherweight champion of America last winter, in the San Francisco fistic carnival, has been matched to fight Frankie Neill, former bantam champion, 20 rounds before the Pacific A. C. Aug. 9th at catch weights.

WITHDRAWS FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The Milwaukee Mechanics Insurance Co. has withdrawn from California and given notice to all of its agents to cease writing business here.

The company's loss in the fire, which it intends to pay, amounted to $1,100,000. It has a net surplus, after the deduction of its losses here of $327,000.

Stores open till 8 o'clock.

TWO ACCIDENTS.
Last evening two accidents occurred at the North End. Last evening while one of the street cars was going down the Indian town hill the motorman lost control of his car and it went at a rapid speed down the hill and around Pidgeon's corner, throwing a young lady who was in the car against a wall and giving her a bad shaking up. The fare box was thrown clear across the street. The car, however, was stopped by the time the next corner was reached.

This morning a similar accident occurred at the same place and had it not been for a gentleman who was sitting in the car two little girls would have been thrown out and probably severely injured. He caught them just before they could fall.

Miss Annie L. Balsey returned today from Boston.

S.B. & D.B. Suits

Fine Assortment. Special Values.

The new goods that we have just received gives us the most complete range we have ever shown, the style, fit and values are away ahead of even those that proved so attractive at this store this spring. No matter what price you pay here you'll get fit and style and you'll get the best value in St. John.

Men's D. B. Suits, $5, $7, $8, $10, $11 to $20.

Men's S. B. Suits, $3.95, $5, $6, $7, 8.75 $10 to $18

J. N. HARVEY, Clothing and Furnishings
199 to 207 Union St

A PROPHECY WHOSE SLIGHTEST NUD MOVES THE UNIVERSE.

Mr. Hayes, of Many Names, Tells the Star of Wonderful Things That Have Happened—He is in Advance of His Generation.

William Joseph Garvey Cashin Hayes, an aged gentleman, wearing a long white beard and a heavy cloth cap pulled well over his ears, was a visitor to the Star office this morning. Mr. Hayes hails from Miramichi, but has travelled in all parts of the world, and can speak Latin, Greek, French, German, Italian and Hindustani, with quite as much fluency as the English language. Mr. Hayes, according to his own testimony, is the only one of all the great minds who have viewed the universe in times past that is left on the earth today. It was from his pen originally that the fathers of Confederation gathered the ideas upon which they founded this great nation. Hayes wrote his greatest poem, a work which he says will live when all else on earth has passed away. Mr. Hayes promises to write, and during those travels he has visited in some of the most remote parts of Europe the Lord visited those ungrateful people with severe earthquakes and shocks. People read of these things and wondered at them, but no human being except himself knew the cause.

In 1897 Mr. Hayes wrote an acrostic poem to the Queen, the first letter of each line spelling Alexander Victoria Dei Gratia. Then the Lord became wrath with him for dedicating his poems to earthly rulers and, during those travels he has visited in some of the most remote parts of Europe the Lord visited those ungrateful people with severe earthquakes and shocks. People read of these things and wondered at them, but no human being except himself knew the cause.

With this suggestion, Mr. Hayes seized a pen and without any premeditation wrote his greatest poem, a work which he says will live when all else on earth has passed away. Mr. Hayes promises to write, and during those travels he has visited in some of the most remote parts of Europe the Lord visited those ungrateful people with severe earthquakes and shocks. People read of these things and wondered at them, but no human being except himself knew the cause.

Mr. Hayes is an Irishman by birth and speaks in the deep, rich Irish brogue. At his christening in the old country the Lord Prime of all Ireland stood as his godfather.

In the year 1858 the first appeared unto him and said "William Joseph, thou art a prophet. Go forth and explain my wonders unto the people. Following the divine command he went forth, and there is no part of the world that he has not visited, and he has not played a prominent part. He knew the San Francisco earthquake was coming, but he had instructions not to tell. It was no mere accident, nor was it of any consequence to the endeavor to account for it. Mr. Hayes understood it all. The people of that time did not know what minute they were going to be tossed headlong into a yawning chasm, and he represented his own position on the earth at the present time. He did not know what minute he might be plotting against his life, his position was quite as precarious as that of the inhabitants of San Francisco during the earthquake. And that calamity was the judgment of heaven against those who persecuted him.

Mr. Hayes has been a much abused man. During his later life he has written some two thousand letters, mostly in the form of poems, to great men throughout America and the world. These included letters to the President of the United States, the Governor General of Canada, and other men occupying positions of prominence at the time. But, much to his surprise and disappointment, as the weeks passed by, no answers came. He therefore concluded that the letters had all gone astray in the mail, and that none of them reached their destination.

Mr. Hayes carefully explained the meaning of several words. Hayes, his name, being interpreted is Helper of God, and that is his position in the world today. Then another important word is Europe. "It was at the time of the Civil War in the States," said he, "that civil war was a marriage, and at the very same time a cable was stretched across from America to Europe—you Rope—Rope—Rope. Do you see it united the two peoples. Such predictions as this are in advance of the present era. I am surrounded by a world of dispirited argumentative unbelievers and my words are not received with due respect. But those who new exercise their discretionary powers over the unfolding of the wings of my prophetic genius will shortly disappear."

Mr. Hayes carries about in his pocket, a number of smooth stones which he has picked up on the sea shore at different places where he has travelled. One of these stones is a peculiar figure which he claims is illustrative of some sacred text. God, he says, directed him to these stones, and explained to him the peculiar significance of each one.

Mr. Hayes is a walking encyclopaedia, and has the complete history of the world stored away in his brain.

LEPAGE THE TAILOR

SENT UP FOR TRIAL

On the Charge of Stealing Cash Box from a Man Named Lamont.

The French tailor, Lepage, was taken from jail to the police court this morning and the case against him for stealing $20 from another young Frenchman named Lamont was resumed. Wm. Turner, who boards at 56 Mill street, testified that he and Lepage occupied the same room together and last Friday he found a pair of broken scissors in the room. At first the scissors were partly broken, but not so badly as now. A piece of the blade found in the stolen cash box corresponds with the broken scissors. He first noticed that the scissors were broken about three weeks ago but did not connect them with the robbery until asked for them by Detective Killen.

Detective Killen testified that on June 18th in response to a telephone message he and Deputy Chief Jenkins visited the Prince Royal Hotel where a young Frenchman named Lamont said that his cash box and $22 had been stolen. Witness procured the broken scissors from Turner. He took Lepage to Lamont and when he asked who stole the box, Lepage began to cry and said that he did. Lepage was then arrested. In answer to the prisoner, Killen said that the defendant did not deny taking the money when arrested and also admitted taking the money when in court on Friday last.

The magistrate said there was enough evidence to send the prisoner up for trial, and when he asked Lepage if he had any statement to make the prisoner said that on the day the money was taken a man named Moore asked him how much it would cost to have a pair of pants made. The prisoner said it depended on the quality and might cost fifteen or twenty dollars. Moore said he did not care for the cost, on the night that the detective searched the Prince Royal Hotel the prisoner said he did not care for the cost, on the night that the detective searched the Prince Royal Hotel the prisoner said he did not care for the cost, on the night that the detective searched the Prince Royal Hotel the prisoner said he did not care for the cost.

He was sent up to be tried in the county court on the fourth Tuesday in August.

GANS GETS DECISION

OVER DAVE HOLLY

SEATTLE, Wn., July 24.—Joe Gans was given the decision over Dave Holly in a welterweight bout last night, after an interesting fight that went the limit, twenty rounds. Holly insisted in clinching repeatedly and used his weight to the advantage. Gans had his opponent groggy in the last round but could not win. Gans had absolutely no chance to show his science in clean fighting but was forced through the fight to the battle at which Holly is best. It was not until the 15th round that Gans began to make his weight tell on Holly. He landed several rights and lefts that drew blood and closed one of Holly's eyes.

At the contest Gans received a punch in the right eye that cut a deep gash and a little later Holly landed a blow on the head which knocked Gans down. The last three rounds were the fastest of the battle.

In the last round Gans landed hard and for a minute it looked as if the Baltimore boxer would win.

Holly's strength came to his rescue, however, and he was able to fight back and bring Gans into a clinch. When the going that marked the close of the fight sounded the men were clinched.

NO HEIR YET TO

HOLLAND'S THRONE.

THE HAGUE, July 24.—Queen Wilhelmina was taken ill last night. A premature delivery followed causing great alarm. It was announced this morning that the expectation of an heir which had thrived at this time will not be realized.

The funeral of the late M. Spence of Canada was held at 2:30 this afternoon. Rev. Mr. McLaughlin of Portland Methodist church conducted the service. Interment took place at Fernhill.

He has learned of most of the great wars of the past century by engaging in them.

After a half hour's most interesting and instructive conversation with the Star, Mr. Hayes felt in his vest pocket and produced a pass which read as follows:

Provincial Hospital.
"To attendants: Permit Mr. Hayes to walk or drive about at seasonable hours."
(Signed) J. V. ANGLIN.

PREPARING FOR

A DICTATORSHIP.

Council Chosen to Assist the Emperor.

Several Members of Russia's Parliament Are Already Under Arrest and Others Are Sought.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—The way has been prepared for a military dictatorship by a proposition now under consideration at Petrohof to create an advisory council to assist the emperor.

VIBOIG, Finland, July 24.—During the night the members of the outlawed Russian parliament received word that two of their number had already been arrested, namely Father Koyarkoff at Voronezh and a Cossack deputy, M. Khariamoff, at Rostov Thodon.

The authorities are also understood to have orders to arrest several social democrats, especially a priest named Afanassief.

Both Father Koyarkoff and M. Khariamoff distinguished themselves by preaching revolution from the rostrum of parliament, the latter being especially bitter in his denunciation of the use of his people in massacring their Russian brethren.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

DELAYS THE CIRCUS

Barnum & Bailey Show Had a Hard Time Getting Away from Halifax.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 24.—Whether or not Barnum & Bailey's circus would be able to show this afternoon at New Brunswick was a question that was questioned about the city this morning, as a quartette of accidents intervened to delay the start of the show. In the first place a car belonging to the first section of the show was backed into a point on the railway, terminus that it had to be unloaded and the contents placed in a truck. The car was then driven to the circus grounds, where it was known as the cooking section, and when it reached Millview, the contents of the car were unloaded. The accident occurred, two cars leaving the rails after a frog had been broken. It was not until the circus was ready to start that the accident occurred, and it was not until the circus was ready to start that the accident occurred, and it was not until the circus was ready to start that the accident occurred.

There were five prisoners arrested yesterday. Arthur Murphy, Frank Henry, Timothy O'Brien, and Edward Murray. They were fined $4 each, and were given a severe lecture on the evils of strong drink.

A young colored boy named Walker was charged by Samuel Woods with assaulting him on Charlotte street. Magee said he had been drinking and did not remember having made the assault. Woods said that he was a stranger to Magee, that the latter caught hold of him on Charlotte street last evening and struck him twice. Magee was fined $3.

A young colored boy named Walker was charged by Samuel Woods with assaulting him on Charlotte street. Magee said he had been drinking and did not remember having made the assault. Woods said that he was a stranger to Magee, that the latter caught hold of him on Charlotte street last evening and struck him twice. Magee was fined $3.

A BUSY MORNING

IN THE POLICE COURT.

There were five prisoners arrested yesterday. Arthur Murphy, Frank Henry, Timothy O'Brien, and Edward Murray. They were fined $4 each, and were given a severe lecture on the evils of strong drink.

A young colored boy named Walker was charged by Samuel Woods with assaulting him on Charlotte street. Magee said he had been drinking and did not remember having made the assault. Woods said that he was a stranger to Magee, that the latter caught hold of him on Charlotte street last evening and struck him twice. Magee was fined $3.

A young colored boy named Walker was charged by Samuel Woods with assaulting him on Charlotte street. Magee said he had been drinking and did not remember having made the assault. Woods said that he was a stranger to Magee, that the latter caught hold of him on Charlotte street last evening and struck him twice. Magee was fined $3.

DOUKHOZORS WENT ON ANOTHER CRUSADE.

Ogish Co. Superintendent Sends Out a Gleimory Report on Manitoba's Wheat Crops.

WINNIPEG, July 24.—It is reported here that the Doukhozors near Yorkton had gone on another crusade and that thirty-eight leaders have been arrested and sent to Regina jail.

The Ogish Flour Mills Company is a statement yesterday, accredited to one of their superintendents, which states that in some sections of Manitoba the crop has been badly damaged by the recent extremely warm spell, rain being badly needed. Other sections have suffered from excessive rain, and red rot is prevalent on the leaves. They predict a smaller yield per acre than in 1905.

Wm. Craft, superintendent of the Northwestern Elevator Company, of Winnipeg, says he has found traces of black rust around Glenboro, and Treherne. However, there has been nothing else heard here to warrant these reports or to cause any alarm.

SEVERAL HAD POCKETS PICKED

WHILE ATTENDING THE CIRCUS

HE WENT AWAY WITHOUT THE CASH

An Enterprising Young Man of Unlimited Means Who Did Not Get Ahead of Anyone Here.

On Wednesday last J. F. Gleason received a call from a man who stated that his name was Rodgers, and that he was the son of a prominent real estate broker of New York. He was, he said, here to purchase a large lot of land. Mr. Gleason had been highly recommended to him, and he wanted his aid in purchasing the said land for the purpose of forming a Jewish colony. He wanted it along a railway line. This colony would require about 20,000 acres, and if the right sort of man he got the price would not be considered.

He hoped that the colony would include factories and would be in every way flourishing. During the days following his first visit Mr. Rodgers came to Mr. Gleason's office a number of times, and was always full of his project. Mr. Gleason had, however, made some enquiries, and could find no real estate man in New York by the name of Rodgers, and consequently he became suspicious. His suspicions were confirmed when the smooth young gentleman a couple of days ago approached him and asked him to have gone up river this morning with Mr. Rodgers to look over a suitable site. Finding out that he had run up against the wrong person the young man this morning did not meet Mr. Gleason, but was seen leaving the city by the early train.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.

William Bulyea, who drives the mail from Wolford to Gagetown, was in the city last Friday and during the afternoon attended the circus. He carried with him a wallet containing a check to the value of between three and four hundred dollars, and also some valuable papers. On returning from the circus he found that his pockets had been picked and the wallet was missing. Mr. Bulyea was lucky however, as he had intended endorsing the check before he went out to the circus, but as a car came at that time along, he did not do so. He now feels very thankful that the car passed when it did.

Another gentleman who is a resident of the North End, is also minus his pocket book. He however was not as lucky as Mr. Bulyea, as he carried sixty dollars in cash, and when he returned from the circus he found that his wallet, cash and all, was missing.

While the circus seemed to have gone away without anybody having had their pockets picked, yet it is now coming to light that several are minus their wallets as the result of attending the show.