PASTOR OF KNOX CHURCH,
LOGGIEVILLE, RESIGNS
TO GO TO THE FRONT

Loggieville, Sept. 27.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jaems W. Johnston was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday of this week at nine a.m. when their daughter Reta was united in marriage to J. W. Ross of Hampstead, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Harris of St. John's church, Chatham. The bride was charmingly gowned. Only immediate relatives made up the company of guests. After the nuptials the company repaired to the dining room where a recherche dinner was served. The presents received by the bride were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left amid showers of rice on the noon train for their wedding trip. They will reside in Hampstead. Their friends here extend felicitations.

Official announcement has recently been made in the town that Rev. William B. Rosborough, pastor of Knox church here, has resigned his charge to answer the call of King and country. Mr. Rosborough has labored in this field but a short five months, having been inducted into this pastoral charge on the 15th day of April of the present year. It is with much regret that the Presbyterians here part with their spiritual adviser. Personally the reverend gentleman was a man of sterling qualities, known best to his intimate friends. How to Wave Hair to Appear Naturally Curly

You won't need to resort to the parching, scorching curling iron, you will find the simple plan I will mention. Isn't that good news?

At night merely apply a little liquid and brush it through the hair from root to tip. This imparts a delightful wavy appearance and a bright lustre suggestive of "hidden sunshine." It will prove beneficial to the hair, instead of making it brittle and dead-looking as the hot iron does. In the morning, instead of your hair being mean and contrary, you will find it quite easy to do up in any form, and there will be no unpleasant odor, grease or stickiness about the hair. Would you suggest that you ask your druggist for the liquid straightener—four or five ounces—which will require no mixing and you can pour a little into a saucer when required. You won't need to wash your hair, but by the way, because the curliness lasts many days. Emily Coulson in Hygienic Review.
