

DR. M'INTOSH EYE SPECIALIST DIES OF SHOCK

Was prominent Physician of this city and made friends who regret his demise.

John Robertson McIntosh, M. D., prominent citizen of St. John, died at his home, 40 Coburg street, yesterday, following a stroke of paralysis. He was fifty-three years of age, and was a native of West St. John. He had been a resident of this city for more than twenty years and was recognized as a doctor of ability with an especially well developed knowledge of eye and ear-maladies. He is survived by his wife, two sons, John and Clarence, all of this city.

Dr. McIntosh spent his early school days in the schools of this city and in 1879 was graduated from the grammar school with honors, winning the Corporation Gold Medal. He then attended the U. N. B. from which institution he was graduated as a B. A. in 1882. Following the completion of his course in that institution he went to Europe and took up the study of medicine in Edinburgh, receiving his degree of M. B. and C. M. in 1888, and completing his studies at the university there in 1890 when he was graduated with his M. D. degree.

He remained in England for some time, practicing in Hartlepool, and later went to London in which city he spent about three years in the special study of eye diseases. Following this he returned to St. John and has been following his profession here, meeting with success and making many friends.

Doctor McIntosh was active and prominent in several societies, in which he will be greatly missed. He was particularly interested in the Masonic Fraternity, and had held offices in that order, including his being past master in Abilene Lodge, past high priest, Carleton Chapter, No. 1, Royal Arch Chapter, past commander of the Encampment of St. John, Knights Templars, and past potentate of Luxor Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine. Besides being a prominent Mason, Dr. McIntosh took a keen interest in his membership in St. Andrew's Society, and was also a member of the board of trustees of St. Andrew's church. By his associates in these several bodies today, the news of his death was learned with sincere regret.

MUSICAL REVUE HERE NEXT WEEK WITH NEW BRIGHT FEATURES

Special Holiday Matinee
at Opera House Monday
—Pictures in addition to regular programme.

The Musical Revue will return to the Opera House for another engagement starting Monday, Victoria Day, with a special holiday matinee. An entire new program will be offered, the make-up of the entertainment being more varied than when the company was here before. Several big scenic and electrical surprises and novelties will be staged and the entertainment will be of the class and merit demanded by even the most fastidious critics. In addition to the regular show two of the latest and best Keystone comedy releases will be presented, including a Chaplin scream in two parts, making a continuous program of vaudeville, musical comedy, drama and moving pictures, all at summer prices. There will be a special holiday matinee on Monday—regular matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Seats for the two holiday performances go on sale tomorrow.

Mrs. Worden Safe.
Mrs. J. W. Worden and three children, who it was believed sailed on the Lusitania, has been heard from and her many friends in this city will be pleased to learn of her safety. They sailed from New York last Friday and are going to the husband and father, Capt. J. W. Worden of Baywater, who has been wounded in the war.

Retail Fish Market.
There has been a good supply of fresh cod and haddock during the week, prices remaining at 5c. a pound. Shad is good but the prices high, the following fish bringing 30c. each. Lobsters are bringing from 15c. to 50c. each; halibut, 15c. a pound; gasperaux, of which there is a good supply, 2c. to 3c. each.

Retailers say that the trade is about normal for this time of the year, rates being steady and constant.

GREEN GETS STIFF FINE FOR ILLEGAL SELLING OF WHISKEY

Archie Green, of 3 City Road is again in trouble on the charge of selling liquor without a license. He was arrested Wednesday night by Detective Worrell assisted by Special Officers Barrett and McBride. Green was fined one hundred dollars for illegal selling about three weeks ago, and the police have had suspicions that he was keeping up the illegal trade.

Detective Worrell entered the house by the rear door which he found unfastened, and pulling up a board in the floor behind the stove they found thirteen long necks of whiskey and eleven square faces of gin. Green put in an appearance while the liquor was being seized and was placed under arrest. In the police court yesterday afternoon Green pleaded not guilty and retained E. S. Ritchie as counsel.

George Brown, who was arrested on Wednesday night on the charge of escaping from the chain gang was placed on the stand for the prosecution. He testified that previous to his having been arrested about a week ago on the charge of selling liquor without a license, he had been boarding at Green's home. The witness said he knew there was liquor in the house, for some weeks previous to his arrest, on the 13th, he said, he went to the house, obtained a bottle of gin and had just sold it to a man in the I. C. R. station when he was arrested. He gave the money that he obtained for the liquor to Green. Mr. Ritchie asked the witness questions regarding his character, but the Magistrate interferred and told the witness not to answer the questions unless he cared to, as they had no bearing on the case.

Detective Worrell and Officer Barrett told about making the raid, and this closed the evidence for the crown. The case was adjourned until this morning at eleven o'clock.

Hop Lee Case.

The case against Hop Lee, the Chinese merchant, for having opium in his possession in his Mill street premises, will be resumed in the police court on Tuesday next. Hop was arrested on March 17th and the case has been dragging along since. A large number of witnesses have been examined, and a number of postponements have been made owing to the councils engaged in other cases. It is expected that the defence will finish with the taking of evidence at the next session, and after the case of Hop Lee is concluded the court will then take up the case against six other Chinamen who were arrested for being inmates of Hop Lee's place when the police made the raid.
