FRANK SMITH ENDORSED IN CARLETON CO.

Opposition at Woodstock Convention Decides Not to Nominate Party Ticket.

CONSERVATIVES ON FARMER PLATFORM

Leadership of Hon. John J. B. M. Baxter is Endorsed by the Delegates.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 30.—The Conservative convention was held here this afternoon. There were sixty members of the party present from Carleton County, R. L. Simms, of Woodstock, was chairman, and A. J. Simms, of Grandville, was elected county secretary in place of John S. Leighton, who had resigned.

The committee recommended that only two names be put on the ticket, leaving the third place for voters to cast their ballots for either Counsellor Ronnie Tracey, of Tracey Mills, who is on the Farmers' ticket, and a Liberal, or S. J. Barber, of Avondale, who is also a Liberal and running as a candidate endorsed by the G. W. V. A. On the committee's recommendation, the delegates nominated are Dr. M. E. Cummins, of Bath, and Robert L. Simms, of Woodstock, both of whom accepted in brief speeches.

The Opposition Plan.

Feeling perfectly satisfied with the composition of the tickets, and having B. Frank Smith as an independent candidate in opposition to the Government, and Fred W. Smith and Samuel J. Barber, both Conservatives, on the Farmers' ticket, it was decided not to nominate an Opposition ticket tonight.

The Hon. J. K. Fleming came by also to attend the meeting, but the hard drive in a storm and bad roads made him ill and he was unable to leave his home. S. G. Barber, the soldier candidate, also attended the meeting.

W. S. Sutton told of the proceedings at the Opposition convention in St. John, when Mr. Mackenzie was elected as an opponent of the present Government.

During the four years that B. Frank Smith spent in the Legislature he was chairman of the Opposition caucus. He was opposed to the Government in the first place because of the Act that gave the entire life of the Legislature to the Government.
