POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 23, 1901.

S OF THE WORLD.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK IN BRIEF.

espatches from points of Interest in diferent parts of the World-Domestic and Foreign events-The Dark and Sunny Side of Life.

Bombay, Wednesday, March 20.—Seven London, March 21—The first day of gunners were killed by the explosion of a spring was characterized by a gale and a Howitzer shell at Secunderaband, India, heavy snow storm sweeping over the channel. A storm has been raging for three days over the north sea. Wintry weather

Norfolk, Va., March 20—The torpedo boat mornton had her final trial trip today. She nowed a speed of 27 knots against a head

New York, March 20—A seat on the New York stock exchange was sold today for $52,000. This is $500 more than the previous high price. ity of each embassy during the last few days. The foreign ambassadors are mak-London, March 20-The House of Com mons today passed the second reading of the bill prohibiting the sale or delivery of intoxicants to persons under 16 years of age. The vote stood 372 to 54.

Washington, March 19—The president has appointed Frederick E. Coyne, now collector at Chicago, postmaster of that Cape Town, March 19.-The military authorities here aproved the new inven-tion of a Maxim gun mounted on a motor car for immediate service.

dioulton, Me., March 20—Houlton's oldest hotel, "Sebastopol," and later known as sieeper's Hotel, was burned today, together with a large stable and outbuildings. The hotel structure was unoccupied. The loss is $3,000, with no insurance.

Washington, March 20—It is understood on high authority that the president has decided to appoint Mr. P. C. Knox, of Pittsburg, to fill the vacancy in his cabinet that will be caused by the retirement of Attorney General Griggs, on April 1.

Middlesbury, Vt., March 20—Aldace Von-

Washington, March 20—Fire broke out to-night in the clothing store of M. Dyrenforth & CO,,923 Pennsylvania avenue. The stock of clothing, valued at $65,000, was badly damaged and the loss on the building, owned by the stetz estate, was about $10,000. Loss covered

New York, March 20-On the steam ship Oceanic, which arrived here today, was Sigmund Hertz, who is accused of forgery while employed as a confidential bookkeepen by Stiefel, Sachs & Company, of this city. It is said the forged paper aggregated between $50,000 to $60,000.

Hazleton, Pa., March 19 .- The fear of another general anthracite coal strike on April 1 is causing a great exodus among the foreign speaking miners of the Hazle-ton region. Tomorrow 50 Italians will go to Johnstown, where they have secure

Buda Pest, March 29-Proceedings have been instituted against 111 students who have voluntarily informed the rector of the university that they had affixed the crosses to the walls of the lecture rooms, without being urged to such action by

White Plains, N. Y., March 20.—Both Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal, whe were married last Saturday while both were seriously ill with scarlet fever at the country residence of Howard Willets, are recovering, and friends insist that the happer aculmination of their representation. happy teulmination of their romance

Terry, Miss., March 20-Jody Pell, a negre Terry, Miss., March 20—Jody Pell, a negro. 25 years of age, charged with attempted robery and assault, was lynched here tonight. Hell had been given a preliminary hearing and placed in jail for safe keeping. The mob meant, to hang Charles Hollingsworth, another negro implicated, but he fought his way through the men and although at least 50 shots were fired at him escaped in the New York, March 19.-Charles E. Cos grove, 26 years old, of New York, was ar-rested in the city of Mexico today for rested in the city of Mexico today is embezzlement. He waved all contests and extradition and will accompany the officers back to this city where he will be arragned on the charge of embezzling $14,000 while cashier and confidential bookkeeper of the firm of Stewart, Howe & May, braid manufacturers.

New York, March 20-The World will Say tomorrow:
Another magnificent gift from Andrew Carnegie will be announced within a few days. It became known yesterday that Mr. Carnegie has offered $5,000,000 to another the said for other American city also, it is said, for the purpose of building libraries.

Philadelphia, it is understood, will be the next recipient of the iron master's Washington, March 20-Secretary o Washington, March 20—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson estimates that over $6,000,000 worth of young livestock throughout the country was saved during 1900 by the prompt use of medicine for blackleg, sent out by the department. Information he has just received shows that over 2,500,000 doses of the vaccine were distributed by the department during the year.

London, March 19.-Lord Headfort' place for some time, if it ever does. At present he is in bed suffering from a sharp attack of influenza. When he recovers he will go to India.

Lord Rosslyn is likely to be seen on the boards of the Royalty Theatre before very long as Mrs. Patrick Campbell has just give him an engagement.

London, March 20—The bankruptcy court at Burton-on-Trent today Lord Waterpark appeared for examination and declared his bankruptcy was due to the compulsory sale of his property in Ireland under the late Mr. Gladstone's land act of 1881. He said he had thereby lost £35,000. The liabilities of the debtor mount to £26,000. His assets are £3, West Superior, Wis., March 19-The biggest storm of the season is raging in this region. Trainic is being tied up fast and it is expected will be entirely at a standstill in a few hours. Milwaukee, Wis., March 19—Officials of the telegraph companies said tonight that if the present storm conditions continue for another twelve hours it is probable that Milwankee will again be shut off from the outside world. ed you may rely it will be freely used."

The Mission of the Writer's Inkhern-Power to Express Affection, or Conter's inkhorn by his side."

The poem from which my text is taken is epic, lyric, dramatic, weird and overpowering. It is more than Homeric or Dantesque. No one ever had such divine dreams as Ezekiel. In a vision this prophet had seen wrathful angels, destroying angels, each with a sword, but in my text ing representations to the Turkish authorities on the matter. London, March 20—In addition to the enormous toll in lives levied by the famine in India, the budget statement shows that the disaster cost the government in 1900 and 1901 $28,235,000, of which amount $21, 135,000 was expended in direct relief. Apart from the foregoing $13,700,000 were advanced to native states for famine refortress, an armory, a gateway, a ransom or a demolition. "You mistake," says some one; "it is the pen that has the power." No, my friend. advanced to native states for famine re-lief and $4,735,000 for special agricultural What is the influence of a dry pen? Berlin, March 19 .- After a long debate the house rejected the proposal of Herr Bebel, the Socialist leader, for a bill whereby children born of house slaves in German colonial territory should be

The house accepted a proposal of Herr Grober, Centrist, and Count Von Oricla. National Liberal, that the reichstag should consider the relations between masters and slaves with the view of pre-paring for the liberation of the latter. Leavenworth, Kas., March 19—The 284 convicts in the coal mine at the state ddleabury, Vt., March 20—Aldace Von-earrested in connection with the ida day, seized the 15 guards, stopped work and took complete possession of the mine.
The convicts hold the guards as hostages for the enforcement of their demands for lighter work and better food. As many of the convicts are life term murderers there was great fear today for the safet of the guards. It appears tonight, how-ever, that no violence has been offered s general throughout Central Europe.

Constantinople, March 20-Much annoy ance is felt in diplomatic circles here at the presence of Turkish spies in the vicinthe convicts merely going on strike. Gardiner, Me., March 19-Mrs. Stanyle Poirier, who with her husband, sister and two children occupied the Ring tenement in Farmingdale, was burned to death this in Farmingdale, was burned to death this afternoon. While pouring kerosene oil on a smouldering kitchen fire, an explosion occurred, blowing the windows out of the house and setting fire to the clothing of Mrs. Poirier, who frantically endeavored to reach her sleeping child in a cradle near by, but was prevented by her sister. she finally rushed out of the back door, falling in the snow, where she expired before assistance could be rendered by the neighbors. Mrs. Poirier was 24 years of age. The family had lived in Farming. lals since last May, coming from Auburn,

New York, March 19-The Presbyterian board of foreign missions today announced that at a recent meeting of the board a resolution was passed urging the United States government to take the initiative in the suppression of the opium trade in China, the negotiations now being carried on between the allied powers and China presenting an opportune time.

It is the intention of the board to pet tion the president of the United States to have the influence of the United States so directed as to bring about, if possible, change in the policy of various nations, neluding England, so as to prevent the importation of opium into China.

A resolution precisely similar in purpose was passed today at the meeting of the board of managers of the Methodist Episcopal Society.

Boston, March 20—The wreck of the teamer Portland in the November, 1893, gale, was recalled once again by the finding of wreckage on Stellwagen Bank, off the tip end of Cape Cod, yesterday, by rawlers on schooner-Sylvia Nunan. While he location of the hull of the craft has never been determined, the theory has been held by many that the Portland went down on the northerly edge of the went down on the northerly edge of the Great Stellwagen Bank, which is plotted on the charts of Massachusetts Bay. Every little while a trawler picks up something in that locality to confirm the belief that wreck of a passenger steamer lies there. Yesterday the trawling lines brought up i lot of wire springs and material that ooked like bedding, but which was so deayed that it could not be examined care-washington, March 21—1he venezuelat charge, Senor Pulido, had a conference with Secretary Hay today, but it did not lead to any developments on the reported friction over Minister Loomis or our demands in the ase of the consular agent at Barcelona, renezuela.

The message of the president of Venezuela, copies of which have just been received, make most friendly references to the relations with the United States. The president refers the United States. The president release to the receipt of a wreath sent by patriotic codies in the United States, to be deposited in the pantheon at Caracas in memory of dirinda, one of the liberators of Venezuela, te says that this is a signal evidence of the cood will existing between the two republics.

The message makes no reference to the asphalt troubles. It says that the government has sent an agent to France with a view of ettling the protracted breach of diplomatic elations which has existed between France and Venezuela and that there is every prospect that these two countries will soon be harmonious relations again.

Southampton, March 21—Interviewed today, Andrew Carnegie said he did not againg to New York's mayoralty, as some one had suggested his name.

London, March 21-To an English interviewer, after his arrival in London, Mr. Carnegie talked freely concerning the steel trust which, he thought, would not effect Great Britain much one way or the "I think there is no fear," said Mr. Carregie, "that the trust's surplus stock will be sold abroad at less than cost, or that he trust hopes to slaughter the steel trade

f Great Britain."
When asked whether the people of Am When asked whether the people of America were not likely to pass stringent antitrust legislation, Mr. Carnegie said no.
He thought the tariff was a back number for many things, having done its work.

But," he added, "where it is still need.

Chicago Record.

The written begging letters to lots of millionaires."

(Get any answers!"

No; like as not I forgot to inclose the stringent and a lot of the long that it is still need.

Chicago Record.

DR. TALMAGE'S CHARACTERIZATION OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL GOOD AND EVIL IN INKSTAND.

lence, or Advice-Writing to the Washington, March 17 .- In a new way and from a peculiar text Dr. Talmage discourses of good influences brought to bear for the world's improvement. The text is Lackiel ix, 2, "And one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writter's inkhorn by his side."

he sees a merciful angel with an ink-horn. The receptacle for the ink in olden time was made out of the horn of a cow or a ram or a roebuck, as now it is made out of metal or glass, and therefore was called an inkhorn, and therefore was called an inkhorn, as now we say inkstand. We have all spoken of the power of the sword, of the power of wealth, of the power of office, of the power of social influence, but to-day I speak of the power for good or evil in the inkstand. It is upon your tables, holding a black or blue or red liquid. It is a fortress, an armory, a gateway.

Pass it up and down a sheet of paper, and it leaves no mark. It expresses no opinion. It gives no warning. It spreads no intelligence. It is the liquid which the pen dips out of the inkstand that does the work. Here and there a celebrated pen, with which a Declaration of Independence or a Magna Charta or a treaty was signed has been kept in literary museum or national archives but for the most part the pens, or have latter. The 284 e at the state nutinied yester, stopped work on of the mine, or of the mine, reds as hostages on of the mine. literary museum or national archives but for the most part the pens, pens took from the inkstand remains in scrolls which, if put together, would be large enough to enwrap the round world. For practical, for moral, for religious, for eternal purposes, I speak of the mission of 'the writer's inkhorn.'

First, I mention that which is First, I mention that which is purely domestic. The inkstand is in every household. It awaits the opportunity to express affection or condolence or advice. Father uses it; mother uses it; the sons and daughters use it. It tells the home news; it announces the marriage, the birth, the departure, the accident, the last sickness, the death. That home inkstand, what a mission it has already executed, and what other missions executed, and what other missions will it yet fulfill! | May it stand off from all insincerity and all queru-lousness. Let it tell only that which it would be well to read after the hand that wrote it and the hand that received it can write no more. Dip out of that inkstand only that which is paternal, maternal, filial, sisterly, brotherly. Sacred let it be not to what are sometimes called the 'household gods,' but to the one and the only God who "setteth the solitary in families." Dip out of it grade of years and encouragement for those who are climbing the The cravers and glass blowers are ever busy making more ornate and skillful bowls for the ink, but not one of them will be so sacred as the old fashioned inkstand out of which was dipped the liquid for the making of the family record on the blank leaves in the Bible between the Old and the New Testaments, not so many leaves now blank as before resolace for parents on the descending set up homes of your own, out of the new home inkstand write often to the old folks, if they be still living! A letter means more to them than to us, who are amid the activities of life and to whom postal correspondence is more than we can manage. They await the coming of the letter. Undertake no great thing in life without their advice. Old people for counsel; young people for action. Even though through decadaction. Even though through decadence they may be incompetent to give valuable opinions on important affairs, compliment them by asking their counsel. It will do them good. It will make their last days exhilarant. Make that home inkstand a source of rejuvenescence to those who are near the terminus of the cannot but be concerning it, "One cannot but be cannot be cannot be cannot be cannot but be cannot cannot be cannot be cannot cannot be cannot cannot b when you cannot dip from the ink-horn a message that will influence temporal and eternal destiny. There

Sign of Approbation.

A DIVINE DREAMER. Niagara rapids of a ruined life. On the next street there is a young man started in business who, through lack command of patronage or mistake in purchase af goods or want of adaptation, is on the brink of collapse. One line of ink from your pen will save him from being an underling all his life, and start him on a career that will win him a fortune which will enable him to become an endower of libraries, an opener of art galleries and build-er of churches.

Furthermore great are the fesponsibilities of the au-Furthermore freat are the responsibilities of the author's inkhorn. All the people, or nearly all the people, read, and that which they read decides their morals or immorals, their prosperity or failure, their faith or their unbelief, their purity or corruption, their heaven or hell. Show me any man's reaves uncut, but displayed for sake of the binding, and those worn with frequent perusal, and without ever seeing the man or knowing his name.

I will tell you his likes and his dislikes; his morals, good or had on the days were made.

All Christendom has been weith the days were made.

All Christendom has been weith the days were made. different; his qualifications for business or artistic or professional or mechanical life. The best index to any man's character is the book he prefers above all others. Oh, the power of a book for good or evil!

may know how wrongdoing in time may be answered by a joke, taking of Jerusalem, or with arctic explorer hear the crash of the ice-Cortes in the halls of Montezuma, or watch in the observatory as Herschel with his telescope captures another star, or the ink in the inkhorn turns red as blood, and we are at Marengo and Arbela and Eylau and Borodino and Leipsic; or we sail with Hamiltan from Carthage to Palermo, or we see Galilei fighting for the solar system; and around us for the solar system, and around us gather for conversation Aristotle and Plato and Robert South and Sydney Smith and Locke and Sam-uel Rogers and Chaucer and Paul Richter and Swift and Hazlitt and Leigh Hunt and Talleyrand and Burke and Edward Irving, while to make music for us Handel and Mo-zart and Mendelssohn come in. and we watch Columbus landing and see

When a bad book is printed you do well to blame the publisher, but most of all blame the author. The malaria rose from his inkstand. The poison that caused the moral or spiritual death dropped in the fluid from the tip of his pen. The manufactur-er of that ink could tell you that it er of that ink could tell you that it is made of tannin and salt of iron and nutgalls and green vitriol, but stopping of the science of assassinamany an author has dipped from his inkstand hypercriticism and malevolence and slander and salaciousness as from a fountain of death. But blessed be God for the author's inkstands recking with blood and washing itself in tears and blaspheming itself in tears and blaspheming. stand in 10,000 studies which are dedicated to pure intelligence, highest inspiration and grandest purpose. They are the inkstands out of which will be dipped the redemption of the world. The destroying angels with Would that the merciful angel of my will be finally overcome by the mer-ciful angel with the writer's ink-Among the most important are the editorial and reportorial inkstands. The thick ink on the printer's roller is different from the ink into which the writer dips his pen and is compounded of linseed oil and lampblack and made thick by holling on hur. earthly journey. Domestic correspondence is not attended to at once. them," and when, under the reign of the angel of that filial kindness appear at the altars of the old homestead.

Furthermore, the inkstand of the business man has its mission. Between now and the hour of your demise, O commercial man, O professional man, there will not be a day. paper. It is not what we put away carefully upon the shelf and once in awhile refer to that has as close re-lation to our welfare as the story of is a rash young man running into what the world is now doing or has wild speculation, and with as much recently done. Yesterday has more ink as you can put on the pen at to do with to-day than something one time you may save him from the occurring a century previous. The en-trains, the sea captains who now command the ships, the architects who now design the buildings, the batons that now control the orchestra, the legislators who now make the laws, the generals who now march the hosts, the rulers who now govern the nations, the inkhorns that now flood the world with intelligence—these are what we have most to do with.

You have all seen what is called indelible ink, which is a weak solu-tion of silver nitrate, and that ink you cannot rub out or wash out.

Put it there, and it stays. Well, the liquid of the editorial and reportorial inkstands is an indeltible ink. It puts upon the souls of the passing generations characters of light or darkness that time cannot wash out amining the books, finding those with leaves uncut, but displayed for sake of the binding, and those worn with for great revivals of religion to start from the pulpits and prayer meetings. I now suggest that the est revival of all time may start a concerted and organized movemen through the inkhorns of all Christen-dom, each writer dipping from the Abraham Lincoln in early life read Paine's "Age of Reason," and it so influenced him that he wrote an essay against Christianity, but afterward some Christian books came dum, each writer dipping from the inkhorn nearest him a letter of gospel invitation, gospel hope; gospel warning, gospel instruction. The ink is already on a lundred thousand tables, and beside it are the implies terward some Christian books came tables, and beside it are the impleinto his hands and gloriously changments with which to dip it out. Why ed his mind and made him a most not, through such process, have milardent friend of the Bible and a man lions of souls brought to God before of prayer.

By letter you could While passing, as in parenthesis. I make the invitation more effective advise: Read books of poetry, that the bells in your soul may be set achiming. Read history, that you back, may evoke querulous reply, comes to defeat and righteousness to good, warm, gospel letter, written in victory. Read books of law, that prayer, and started with prayer and that you may see that anarchy has no right in a world so precisely governed. Read books of wit and swered in a frivolous way. It will erned. Read books of wit and swered in a frivolous way. It will humor, that you may experience the healthfulness of laughter. Read night or, if pettishly torn up, will. in its scattered fragments, speak louder than when it remained whole. books of religion, that you may appear in its scattered fragments, speak preciate how small is the vestibule louder than when it remained whole of time compared with the palaces of Within arm's reach of where you sit eternity.

Through books we sit down and talk with the mightiest spirits of all the ages. We accompany Tennyall the ages. We accompany Tennyall the ages and love. Oh, for the swift flying angel of mercy which Ezekiel saw in a spirity of the same in the same there may be a fluid that you may the last lance shall be shivered and the last battleax dulled and the last sword sheathed, never again to leave the scabbard, and the angel of the text, who, Matthew Henry says, was the Lord Jesus Christ, shall, from the full inkhorn of his mercy, give a saving call to all nations. That day may be far off, but it is helpful to think of its coming. As. Dr. Ra-leigh declared, that when 50 miles of sea off the coast of New England the cattle on board the ship, as well as himself, scented the clover on the New England hills, so we, amid all the tossing waves of the world's con-troversies, inhale the redolence of it not time that the boasted inven more widely devastating weapons of death be stopped forever and the gosover for the founding of Harvard University, and Joshua Reynolds and David Wilkie and Rembrandt tell us of their pictures. Oh. the books! Thank God for the books. and thanks be to all the authors! May the inkhorn ever be under divine inspiration! death be stopped forever and the gospel have a chance and the question be not asked, How many shots can be fired in a minute? but How many souls may be ransomed in a day? The world needs less powder and more grace, fewer fortresses and more churches, less power to destroy more power to save. Oh, I am sick of the warcries and the extinguished eyesight and the splintered bones and the grave trenches and the widowhood and orphanage and childless-ness which sob and groan and die in the wake of the armies on both sides of the sea! Oh, for less of the ing itself in tears and blaspheming the heavens and pushing off the edge of this life men who have as much right to live as you and I have and their swords seen in Ezekiel's vision will be finally overcome by the mer-fling it off and fling it down with such force that it shall clang on the lowest round of the perdition where of death will be stabled, and the white horse of prosperity and peace, spondence is not attended to at once.

The newspaper, joining with the telegraph, bears the tidings of all the neighborhood, but swiftest revolving wheel of modern printing press and quickest flash along the electric wires of the home integrated and any when the printed and that only on Mondays! Not until the quickest flash along the electric wires of the home integrated and any when the procession! Hail, thou Mighty Rider of the home integrated before the brazeh altar with the inkhorn at his side in Ezekiel's vision, so let the angel of that filial kindness appear at the altars of the old home. the Lord for a name, for an ever-lasting sign that shall not be cut > tween you and Miss Cavendish? Jack (gloomily)-Her father and

No Brains There.

He looks on the wine when it's reil, And doesn't know when it's real,

And doesn't know when to stop,

Of course the tumes go to his head.

For "there's plenty of room at the top. Philadelphin Press

W. H. THORNE & CO., Ltd.

Harness and Collars.

The Horse wear we sell all over this country stands for us and we stand by it. When you buy Harness or other Horse Goods here you know we are behind it We

We supply the best of Harness from the best of Leather, well made and sure to wear. A call will con ince you our prices are right

H. HORTON & SON, 11 Market square, St. John N B.

$200.00 IN CASH PRIZES. - OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its growth? In 1881 we had a population of 4,336,504. In 1891, when the last census were taken, we had 4,485,377 of a population, an increase of 148,873. The problem now is: What will be the population of the Dominion of Canada when the official census are taken in April, 1901? How the Prize Money will be divided:

Total number of prizes, 19, amounting to $200 00 OUR OFFER! Anyone who sends me 25 cents in silver or Postal Note for an ECLIPSE WRITING PACKAGE, which will contain 50 sheets of Writing Paper and 50 Envelopes, will be entitled to one guess, and you can guess as often as you send 25c for the Box of Paper, you get the guess FREE.

YOUR GUESS; When you send in your 25c, you make your guess. Be sure and write your name, your address, and guess as plainly as possible. As soon as your letter is received your Guess is Registered, and we will fill out and send you a Certificate corresponding with guess made by you. We file the duplicate. If you are a winner will notify you as soon as possible after the Commissioner of Census at Ottawa has publicly announced the Official Figures. Until then no one will know the correct figures. We will run this contest fairly and squarely, and deal honestly with all men. This contest will close May 1st, 1901, and the prize winners will be announced in this

Address all orders to JAS. T. UTTLEY, DOON, ONT., CANADA.

INTERESTING LIBEL ACTION

Against English Papers. London, March 21-The King's Bencl again the centre of attraction today, owing to the hearing of the libel actions brought against the Star and the Morning brought against the Star and the Mornin Leader by Mr. Arthur Chamberlain and his son Neville Chamberlain, in connec contracts. The cross-examination of Mr. Arthur hamberlain was continued. He declared that he had formed the opinion that the main object of the articles was to villify his brother, Joseph, in doing which they villified him. Though the papers one day villified him. Though the papers one day villified him. disclaimed the intention of imputing cor-ruption and dishonesty to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, on the following day the printed something which was more libe ous than ever.

Counsel for the defendants produced letters purporting to have passed between the Kynochs and the Nobels, by which the former agreed to keep up the price o dered to the British government

Mr. Arthur Chamberlain repudiated, all knowledge of the letters. Subsequently Mr. Arthur Chamberlain admitted that there had been an agreement in 1894 between the Kynochs, Nobels and Chilworths in regard to a fixed price for cordite.

In regard to the cordite contract for Arklow in 1898, Mr. Arthur Chamberlain said he did not see any Irish members of parliament, but got local pressure put on them by telling the working people that the shops would be closed unless the contract was secured.

Here the lord chief justice interjected: "You pulled the strings."

Counsel read a couple of letters from

Mr. Arthur Chamberlain to the manager of the Arklow works, urging that local pressure be brought to bear on the Irish members of parliament and telling the manager that Mr. William Field, member for the St. Patrick's division of Dublin, was about to visit the works. The man ager was invited not to say anything un-true but to select those truths which were most illustrative of advantages Mr. Chamberlain brought to Arklow. On further cross-examination, Mr. Ar-thur Chamberlain admitted that the Kynochs secured government orders for cordite when their tenders were higher than others. The case was again adjourned.

To cure what? Catarnh, Asthma, Hay Fever To cure what? Catarrib, Asthma, Hay Fever and Bronchitis. Its pame is Catarrhozone. If you breathe it, it cures you. There's lots of satisfaction in using Catarrhozone and after you've used it a little while you'll wonder how you ever lived without it. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00 at all druggists or by mail. N. C. Poison & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Coun.

Cudahy Kidnapper Confesses.

Dallas, Texas, March 21.-Sheriff John son tonight made the statement: "H. C. Henderson confessed to me and county Attorney Summers that he is one County Attorney Summers of the Cudahy kidnappers.

Tenecope, N. S., March 21—It was generally confeeded that Mrs. Biny Brown was too ill to recover from the severe cold that settled on her langs this winter. Fonturnately she inhaled Catarrhozone regularly which strengthened the lungs, cased the caugh and that leads to have been fatally injured.

The motorman has less to do with running street cars than the predicter man has all sides great praise for Catarrhozone.—Chicago News.

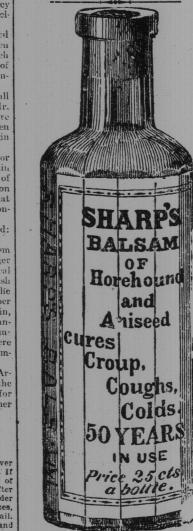

BRITISH COMMONS. By Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's Brother Protest by Irish Members-Closure Applied

-Army Vote Passed. London, March 21.—During the discus-London, March 21—The King's Bench division of the high court of justice was Irish members protested against the war

pealed to them to allow the votes to be taken, promising that an opportunity would be given after Easter to discuss army matters.

Finally Mr. Balfour applied the closure, the Irish members howling and shouting, "Scandalous," "Gag" and similar ejacula-

PASSENGER CAR

DOWN EMBANKMENT.

Twenty People In It-None Fatally Injured. Montreal March 21 (Special) -The passen ger coach of the Joliette local train left the