

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, May 15—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley and family have moved from St. John to their summer home here. Mrs. Tilley left yesterday on a trip to England and the continent.

On Monday, Mrs. John Robinson and Mrs. Harry Frink, of Rothsay, and Mrs. Simon Jones, of St. John, entertained in the city at the Green Lantern, at the tea hour, for Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley. Others present were Mrs. Walter Handerson, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. William S. Allison, Miss Puddington, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Charles Boswick, Miss Bancroft, Mrs. Harold B. Robinson, Miss Cecilia Armstrong and Mrs. Walter Foster.

Mr. John Hastings left on Saturday for a ten days' visit to Boston, accompanied by his niece, Miss Frink, of St. John. Mrs. Thomas G. Smith, of Kingston (Ont.), who has been guest of Rev. A. W. Daniel and Mrs. Daniel, went to St. John on Monday to visit friends.

Among the guests for the last weekend at the Kennedy House, were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Edwards, who had an afternoon tea guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. J. H. Foster, Mrs. E. Sawyer and Miss Doris Sayre, Mrs. Charles Coater and Miss Christian Edwards.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 13, the marriage of Miss Ida Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Pettigall, to James Andrew Beza, is to take place in Rothsay Baptist church at 8 o'clock. Miss Pettigall has a very large circle of friends who are wishing for her many years of happiness.

Mr. James Russell, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Liberty, of St. John, spent the day with Mrs. and Miss Henderson, at Riverside.

Miss Ethelwyn Hall spent the weekend here, guest of Miss Dorothy Purdy, and although she is very young, she has many friends who were very glad to see her. It is also a note of regret to Miss Hall expects shortly to go to England to reside, and this may possibly have been a farewell visit.

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body. McMillen's orchestra rendered excellent music. Among the out-of-town guests were Col. J. L. McAvity, Col. E. T. Sturdee, Col. A. E. Massie and Mrs. Massie, Messrs. J. T. Mahoney, W. W. F. H. George, A. V. J. Webster, Miss Beaulieu, Messrs. J. E. Melancon, R. Thompson, G. C. Bradley, of Shelburne; Miss Rose Smith, of Aylesford, Mr. A. J. Gillis, of St. John, and Miss Louise M. B. A. Irving and Miss Katherine Stevenson, of Buctouche, are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving. Mrs. J. H. Irving is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving, at her home in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

which occurred last Friday afternoon. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock, took place Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Canon Neale officiated. Interment was at Kirk Hill.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Miss Jean Peacock spent the weekend at Norton with Mrs. John Harrington.

Prof. and Mrs. Crowell, Dr. and Mrs. Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, Miss Vera Greenleaf, Miss Fanny Irving, Miss Helen Pickard, Miss B. Fraser, Miss George A. Keefer, F. C. Parker, Gordon Miss Elsie Penick, Prof. McKel, Mr. Talbot (St. John), Mr. McCallum, Mr. W. Godfrey, Mrs. Walter Pickard, Mr. Gray Smith, Mr. G. Allen and Mr. Bent.

Mr. George Tilley, of Beletown, was in town on Tuesday, guest of Mrs. Fred Turner.

Dr. and Mrs. Wynham, of Lisbon Falls (Me.), are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son. Mrs. Wynham was formerly Miss Elsie Turner, of Sackville.

Mr. W. H. Lennox spent Sunday in town, guest of his sister, Mrs. H. W. Cochrane.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Harry J. Cochrane gave a very pleasant afternoon tea to a number of her young and old friends at her home on Park street.

Among the guests were Miss Mona McLellan, Miss Hazel Mowat, Miss Greta Melzer, Miss Senie Sheldahl, Miss Kathie Dickey, Miss Millicent Carter, Miss Sybil McAnn, Miss Gillis, Miss Olive Carter, Miss Hulda Blankenship, Miss Edith Freeman, Miss Margaret Goodwin, Miss M. M. Weston, Miss Jean Carter, Miss Emma Sangster, Miss Jean Henderson. During the afternoon vocal solos were very prettily sung by Miss Helen Melzer and Miss Sangster.

Mr. W. T. Wood returned on Friday from a very pleasant trip to England. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lennox, of Kennebunk, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Snow.

Mrs. Creighton, of Buffalo, is visiting in town, guest of her sister, Mrs. Morton Lennox.

Professor Bigelow and family will spend the summer at the Bigelow home in St. John, N. B. Mr. Bigelow is a member of the Y. M. C. A. and his family will pass their vacation in the counties of Kings and Annapolis.

Mr. Robert H. Tall, of St. John, arrived in Sackville Friday evening, and is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Calhoun, Bridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fawcett, of Weldon street, are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Miss Gertrude Hamilton, of Mount Allison, spent the weekend at St. John, where she was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Miss Elliott, of Peggush, is the guest of Mrs. Gains E. Fawcett.

Miss Elliott, of Peggush, is the guest of Mrs. Gains E. Fawcett.

Prof. and Mrs. Crowell, Dr. and Mrs. Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, Miss Vera Greenleaf, Miss Fanny Irving, Miss Helen Pickard, Miss B. Fraser, Miss George A. Keefer, F. C. Parker, Gordon Miss Elsie Penick, Prof. McKel, Mr. Talbot (St. John), Mr. McCallum, Mr. W. Godfrey, Mrs. Walter Pickard, Mr. Gray Smith, Mr. G. Allen and Mr. Bent.

Mr. George Tilley, of Beletown, was in town on Tuesday, guest of Mrs. Fred Turner.

Dr. and Mrs. Wynham, of Lisbon Falls (Me.), are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son. Mrs. Wynham was formerly Miss Elsie Turner, of Sackville.

Mr. W. H. Lennox spent Sunday in town, guest of his sister, Mrs. H. W. Cochrane.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Harry J. Cochrane gave a very pleasant afternoon tea to a number of her young and old friends at her home on Park street.

Among the guests were Miss Mona McLellan, Miss Hazel Mowat, Miss Greta Melzer, Miss Senie Sheldahl, Miss Kathie Dickey, Miss Millicent Carter, Miss Sybil McAnn, Miss Gillis, Miss Olive Carter, Miss Hulda Blankenship, Miss Edith Freeman, Miss Margaret Goodwin, Miss M. M. Weston, Miss Jean Carter, Miss Emma Sangster, Miss Jean Henderson. During the afternoon vocal solos were very prettily sung by Miss Helen Melzer and Miss Sangster.

Mr. W. T. Wood returned on Friday from a very pleasant trip to England. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lennox, of Kennebunk, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Snow.

Mrs. Creighton, of Buffalo, is visiting in town, guest of her sister, Mrs. Morton Lennox.

Professor Bigelow and family will spend the summer at the Bigelow home in St. John, N. B. Mr. Bigelow is a member of the Y. M. C. A. and his family will pass their vacation in the counties of Kings and Annapolis.

Mr. Robert H. Tall, of St. John, arrived in Sackville Friday evening, and is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Calhoun, Bridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fawcett, of Weldon street, are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Miss Gertrude Hamilton, of Mount Allison, spent the weekend at St. John, where she was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Miss Elliott, of Peggush, is the guest of Mrs. Gains E. Fawcett.

Miss Elliott, of Peggush, is the guest of Mrs. Gains E. Fawcett.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, May 15—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley and family have moved from St. John to their summer home here. Mrs. Tilley left yesterday on a trip to England and the continent.

On Monday, Mrs. John Robinson and Mrs. Harry Frink, of Rothsay, and Mrs. Simon Jones, of St. John, entertained in the city at the Green Lantern, at the tea hour, for Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley.

Among the guests for the last weekend at the Kennedy House, were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Edwards, who had an afternoon tea guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. J. H. Foster, Mrs. E. Sawyer and Miss Doris Sayre, Mrs. Charles Coater and Miss Christian Edwards.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 13, the marriage of Miss Ida Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Pettigall, to James Andrew Beza, is to take place in Rothsay Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

Mr. James Russell, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Liberty, of St. John, spent the day with Mrs. and Miss Henderson, at Riverside.

Miss Ethelwyn Hall spent the weekend here, guest of Miss Dorothy Purdy, and although she is very young, she has many friends who were very glad to see her.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

ROTHESAY

decorated with flags, flowers, bunting and colored lights, presents a very attractive appearance. The choruses were Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. F. R. Sumner, Mrs. E. D. Chandler, Mrs. J. M. C. Cooke. The hall was given under the auspices of the local millmen and reflected great credit on that body.

Miss Emma Carley has returned from her visit to St. John, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenke have returned from their visit to St. John, where they have been spending the week with friends in Parrobb.