department, it is believed that he received the injuries at Neuve Chapelle. He died on April 16. At 10.80 yesterday morning his brother, Cecil McKiel, Prospect street, Fairville, received the following telegram from Ottawa: "Deeply regret Private No. 22764 died from wounds April 16. Officially announced."

He was the son of the late Rev. Le-Baron McKiel, who was for years pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville. He was educated in the local schools, and was of a bright and amiable disposition which made for him many friends in Fairville and the city, and raused him to be very popular in his battalion. He would have been thirty-two years of age next August. He leaves to mourn, two brothers—Cecil and Medley, both of Fairville, and three sisters: Mrs. Norman Zycker and Mrs. Andrew Rudolf, of Lunenburg (N. S.), and Miss Cora, who is now a Red Cross nurse at the front.

Private McKiel served for eight years at the militia and received.

Captain Paul R. Hanson, also wounded, was formerly manager of the Dunlop Tyre & Rubber Company, Canterbury street. He volunteered for service at the outbreak of war and was one of the first of the Canadian officers to leave these shores and to be taken to France. His wife's address is given in St. Lambert's, Quebec.

In none of these cases is the nature of the wounds indicated nor indeed is it stated whether they are dangerous or otherwise. No news is forthcoming either of where the fighting took place

Lord Brooke, of General French's staff, cabled General Hughes Saturday: "Hearty congratualtions on magnificent behaviour of Canadians."

General Hughes replied: "Sincere thanks for message. Please convey to Sir John and the Canadians the pride and joy of their comrades in Canada for the part they have so nobly played. The Canadians have justly proved that there was no surrender, and that, by whatever fault the guns were lost, they were not allowed to remain in possession of the enemy."

To a congratulatory cable from Earl Grey, former governor-general of Canada, Premier Borden replied:

"Deeply appreciate your message. Canada is very proud that her sons have upheld so worthly the splendid traditions of our great pioneer races."

To General Alderson, commander of the Canadian division, the Premier sent the following:

"Report of the splendid gallantry and

"Report of the splendid gallantry and efficiency of the division under your command has thrilled all Canada with pride. Warmest congratulations."

Casualties Very Heavy.

Ottawa, April 25—Over eighty officers of the First Canadian Expeditionary Force are now included in the list of killed and wounded as a result of the titanic struggle at Langemarck, and there are fears that this number may be augmented. So far the list of losses among the men has not been cabled, and it is not expected for several days. This t is not exjected for several days. This morning the first list among officers came to hand, with one killed and thirty wounded. It was hoped that this was the extent of the losses, but during the afternoon and evening the total steadily "Cursing and shouting the steady subjected to a gave way to panic."

morning the first list among officers came to hand, with one killed and thirty wounded. It was hoped that this was the extent of the losses, but during the afternoon and evening the total steadily mounted.

Letters from Lieut Cyrus F. Inches, dated April 8, who is with Major F. C. Mägee, gives the officers of the Battery Mess as follows: "The personnel at present being, Major Magee, O.C., Capt. Helifelinstean, Capt. Chown (paymaster), Capt. Relifelinstean, Capt. Chown (paymaster), Capt. Grigmon (vet.), Capt. Mackay, Lieuts, Ryan, Garland, Leach and myself. I should have included the interpreter somewhere in the liet."

Capt. Relifelinstein mentioned by Lieut, Inches in the air-man. Capt. Mackay is from P. B. Island and was in Frederic ton during the winter.

In a previous letter he wrote that Lieut. Kelly, whom he had not seen for nearly two months, called to see him and was at their mess to dinner. Lieut. Hayes had also ridden in a few days previously.
