

REPORT.

✓ THE season has arrived when the Committee of the District Visiting Society of St. George's Parish are accustomed to present their Annual Report, and, at the same time, to renew their appeal to the sympathies of their Christian friends.

1 It is not necessary, on such occasions, to enter into a lengthy statement respecting the appropriation of the funds with which they have been entrusted. Suffice it to say, that a careful judgment and discrimination is at all times exercised in dispensing aid to those who are found really needing the necessities of life. The experience of several years in the management of this institution, the general sympathy which it has always awakened towards the sick and weary, and the practical good it has, with God's
