

The famous (or infamous!) Camp Secretary-Treasurer and Supervisor: Cpl. Chris Fedor and Insp. Tim Gray.

Quality time! Retired A/Commr. Ray Mercier and his wife, Denise, spend the day with their granddaughter at Long Island Camp.

for swimming lessons, or just for the dinner/dances.

If you haven't taken your family to the Long Island Camp yet, why not give it a try this summer? While your children are busy playing with their new-found friends, you can sit, relax and enjoy conversations with your spouse or other adults. We guarantee you won't be disappointed and you will never hear the words "I'm bored" or "I want to go home" from your children. They will love and thank you for it ... in fact, one visit won't be enough for them! Long Island Camp is our home away from home, make it yours!

For further information about Long Island Camp, please contact:

Trailer/Camp Sites (no reservations required):

Insp. Tim Gray
RCMP ILPO, Room G-418 HQ
1200 Vanier Parkway
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0R2
Phone: (613) 993-7863
Pager: (613) 751-7797

Cabins (reservations are required):

Cpl. Chris Fedor
RCMP "A" Division, Special "I"
155 McArthur Ave.
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0R2
Pager: (613) 786-8389
Fax: (613) 993-8040

or

All-around fun and lasting friendships make Long Island Camp a home-away-from-home for many campers. Make it yours this summer!

For Picnic or Group Bookings:

Gerry Labelle, Camp Manager
RCMP Long Island Camp
P.O. Box 17
Manotick, Ontario K4M 1A2
Phone: (613) 692-3601
Fax: (613) 692-4201
Pager: (613) 780-7801

Note: All photos by Bonnie Gray.

Bonnie Gray is the wife of Insp. Tim Gray, Camp Supervisor, and the daughter of retired Supt. J.H. (Jack) MacLaughlan (#17131/0.913) and Hilda. She also has two brothers serving with the Force: C/Supt. John MacLaughlan (Central Region) and Insp. Craig MacLaughlan ("B" Division). She is also the Administrative Assistant for the RCMP Veterans' Association Dominion HQ office and the Researcher/Writer for the Quarterly.— Editor ❖