World's Champions Showed Old Form and Defeated St. Pat's

They Won by 6 to 2 and Had The Edge on Their Opponents. Game Was Best in Toronto This Year.

Toronto Globe.
Before the largest crowd of the season, which was estimated to be close to the 6,000 mark, Kitchener last night defeated St. Patrick's by the score of 6 to 2. The winners showed their best form of the season and clearly earned the verdict. The Parkes-Hiller combination was much to the fore and was never seen to better advantage on local ice. The victory places the Allan Cup holders on even terms with St. Patrick's.
The game was one of the fastest and most keenly contested battles ever seen here and the 6,000 spectators fairly shook the rafters with their cheering. The locals, who wore the Aura Lee uniforms, started out well and in the initial period gave as good as they received, outscoring the visitors 1 to 0. Two minutes and thirty seconds after the game commenced Eltherington outscored the Kitchener defense, and Parkes, coming in fast, drove the rebound from his shot into the net. Kitchener, however, were not disheartened and opened up a series of attacks on the local goal, which worried St. Patrick's considerably.
Hiller played a remarkable game for the visitors. He back-checked consistently at all stages and was always in position to take a pass from the incoming forwards. Parkes was also prominent and once under way was very hard to stop. He worked in systematic style with Hiller and his sensational rushes had the supporters of the Allan Cup holders in a frenzy of delight.
Merrick Plays Well
Trushinski and Merrick presented a stoppage defense that was hard to penetrate and their end to end rushes were much in evidence. The former notched the first goal for the visitors. Merrick showed improved form and clearly demonstrated that he is deserving of a regular place in the line-up. Hainsworth, in goal, handled nearly everything that came his way with rare abandon and gave one of his very best displays.
St. Patrick's, though defeated, were far from disgraced. They tried with might and main to stem the tide and the score of 6 to 2 is by no means an indication of the play. Kitchener had the edge, it is true, but they were very fortunate in several of their counters. The team is not out of the running by any means and may upset the dope, as they did on a former occasion this season, by winning right in Kitchener.
Crook played well in the net and many of his saves were sensational. Several times he outscored the Kitchener forwards after they had beaten the defense. Frank Hefferman never tried harder in his life. He worked with a vengeance from beginning to end and his grand rushes drew him rounds of applause. In the initial period he nearly duplicated his

Juniors Run Away With Group Honors

Kitchener 12, Galt 1
Manager Kaplan and Secretary Sturm are delighted to say the least, the juniors performance last night was all that could be desired, and the fair sized crowd in attendance saw one of the best games of Junior hockey ever pulled off at the auditorium.

The game must not be wholly judged by the score, which at first glance gave it a very one-sided appearance.
The Galt boys work like niggers right through to the last minute, but they were given the finest lesson in skating, stick-handling and shooting they ever had or are likely to get this season.
The ice was in good shape; the opportunity of fast skating was all in the local favour.
The first ten minutes was even going, runaways by both teams occurred but from the time G. Schnarr netted the first goal the play swung entirely into the locals' favour.
Fritz added a second before the period closed, and it was only by a miracle that Gerald Schnarr missed a third.
The second period opened with a wild of the Galt men towards the locals' net, but the puck was gathered by Gildner, and with true characteristic style, this wonder junior took it through the whole scotch sixties and scored. In like manner he added another before the period closed. Werner Schnarr and Trushinski also nailed one apiece.
The third period showed a regular bombardment of the visitors' net. Werner Schnarr accounted for two, Trushinski three and House, who was relieving Fritz, one.
Galt played fast and hard. Skelly, their defense man, though his tactics are not all that could be desired in clean hockey, was a real worker and on several occasions brought the puck into Kitchener ice only to be checked by an impenetrable defense.
Ten minutes from final time Kress netted for the visitors, this being their only tally all evening. Schnarr, however, immediately followed with the locals' final goal, and the last five minutes of play went by without a score.
The line-up was as follows:
Kitchener—Goal, Schnarr; defense, Trushinski and Gildner; centre, W. Schnarr; wings, G. Schnarr and Fritz. Sub—Schell and House. Galt—Goal, Rose; defense, Watts and Skelly; centre, Kress; wings, Todd and George. Sub—Hymel and Graham.
Referee—Pte. W. Uffelman, Waterloo.
NOTES ON THE GAME
Gildner was a marked man last evening; twice he was laid low, but he repaid all with double the interest of Victory Bards.

LEE INVESTIGATES MICHIGAN CIT ES is Commissioned to Inquire Into Conditions in Wolverine State

London, Jan. 29.—The decision of Tom Nelson, former owner of the Brantford franchise in the Canadian League, in supporting a circuit composed of four Michigan and four Ontario cities in the 1919 revival of the game, is holding up the circuit which "Knotty" Lee of Toronto, is trying to organize in Ontario. Lee, the organizer of the original Canadian League in 1911, had plans to include Niagara Falls, N.Y., St. Catharines, Hamilton, Brantford, Guelph, Kitchener, London and St. Thomas in a league this year, but has abandoned this until he investigates a revival of the game in Jackson, Flint, Bay City and Lansing.
He is being commissioned by Mr. Nelson to go to Michigan on Saturday.

day. If he meets with success Mr. Nelson's dream is realized, but the feeling to go ahead without the Michigan cities is strong in all the above cities except Hamilton and Brantford, and backers of clubs in those cities are not averse to going ahead with a six-city league, leaving Brantford and Hamilton out unless they want to come in.

FORTY-FIRST YEAR

PEACE

"SELF DETERMINATION" NEXT

Principle Adopted

WILSON HAS WON THE STRAIGHTS

PARIS, Jan. 31. (By Fr. Ferguson).—The next great step is Self Determination. It is developed to-day. A pre-emptive step toward the consummation of this vital principle were expected to be taken when the peace resumed its sessions this afternoon. The agreement reached yesterday regarding the disposition of German colonies does not apply to Eritrea, contrary to general and according to authoritative information.
The reason is that these are too far advanced in every permit outsiders to administer affairs.

The Dalmatian question it was not out, is still unsettled, although accepting the principle involved yesterday's colonial agreement, abandoned the argument of Italy, which was Australia's contention. Similar cases include Czechoslovak claim to German territory within and bordering on Belgium and France's desire for "new frontiers" along the west bank of the Rhine.

While it was frankly admitted certain quarters to-day that the determination issue will perhaps elicit more bitter disagreement than those which were yesterday, a great step was toward fixing the principles of determination when the inviolability of the armistice terms was considered.

American diplomacy to-day won its third straight victory in peace conference over recent opposition. Official announcement that "satisfactory provisional arrangements" had been reached regarding the disposition of German colonies and occupied territories in Asia and Africa, means that the powers have accepted President Wilson's program for placing all dis-

Tempest in a Teapot Who Licked Austria

ITALY AND SERBIA SQUABBLE
PARIS, Jan. 31.—The provocation in a teapot had here to-day between the Serbs and the Italians over who beat the trians, and to whom the Austro-Hungarian fleet belongs. Italy, it is said, has been reached regarding the disposition of the Austrian Empire, principally due to the Jugoslavians and others, charging the Serbs with persecuting the Slavs in occupied territories; bidding the wearing of the Slavic cockade; declaring the Austro-Hungarian fleet belongs to the Serbs and the Serbs, the allied-hungarian side and finally to the Italian side on the Flare.
The Italian bureau of propaganda issued a counter-manifesto declared that the charges of persecution are based solely upon the of a man named Bianchini, a notorious "Austro-ophile; that the cool which at first were authorized later banned, because they were disorders and made it possible enemies of Italy to circulate through the occupied territories did the Austrian see Bieufeld, according to the counter-manifesto, Bieufeld, who led many night raids on Venice, was able to freely through the streets of Italy because he wore a Jugoslavade.
The counter-manifesto, contrary to the statement that the do of the Austrian Empire was d the military efforts of Italy, and Russia, the allied-hungarian side and finally to the Italian side on the Flare.

Crisis Over Colonial Peace Policy

Wilson Came Out Footed Against Peace of Loot

ATMOSPHERE CLEARED HIS FIRMNESS
PARIS, Jan. 31.—The crisis in peace negotiations over the disposition of Germany's colonies seemed, momentarily at least to have passed.
It is too early to say that President Wilson's view prevails in its entirety but in American quarters the confidence that a compromise which has been accepted in principle will be worked out with details will be acceptable to the American viewpoint. When supreme court peace conference meets to-day it have before it the very plain a-
