The Truest Treasure.

BY MACKENZIE BELL.

Life may bring us bitter sorrow
 When our hearts refuse submission,
 When we long for a tomorrow
 Bringing balm as Hope's fruition.
 Love may bring us bitter sadness
 When we know our love can never
 Give anew the sense of gladness
 That we thought it would for ever.
 Joy may bring us bitter trouble :
 Faith may die in voiceless anguish ;
 Hope may seem an empty bubble
 When bereft of hope we languish.
 Worldly peace may brings us only,
 In our hearts of disquiet ;
 Leaving us—will leave us lonely
 Battling in the world's rude riot.
 Trust in man may bring delusion :
 Often, often hath it perished,
 And we feel, in dim confusion,
 'Twas a phantom that we cherished.
 Trust in God in fullest measure
 Holds of earthly change no leaven
 And it is the truest treasure,
 For it makes of earth a heaven.
