THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 12, 1900

Local and Provincial.

At the regular morning service in the Baptist church last Sunday, Mr. William Chipman was inducted as a deacon.

The Browning Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Capt. Taylor on Monday evening next, Jan. 15th, at 7.30 o'clock.

We have neglected to acknowledge the receipt of a very neat calendar from Mr. A. Stuart Clarke, agent in Wolfville for the Victoria Montreal Fire Insurance Co.

The schooner Star from Pictou, discharged a cargo of coal for the Electric Light Co. on Wednesday. This is an unusually late date for navigation to be open here.

We understand that owing to the steady rise in the cost of all kinds of coal at the mines our local dealers have been compelled to advance the retail prices here.

The whist club meets next Monday at the home of Mrs. J. Elliott Smith. Those who wish to go in the big team will please leave their names with Mr. J. A. Thomson.

The mails between Wolfville and Casperian are being driven by Mr. J. Andrew Caldwell this week in consequence of the illness of the mail driver, Mr. Mariner Cleveland.

A number of horses have been purchased in this vicinity for use of the second Canadian contingent in South Africa. Mr. J. W. Bigelow, furnished one and Mr. J. L. Gertridge a pair.

On our fourth page this week appears an interesting letter from the pen of Rev. D. O. Parker. Mr. Parker is spending the winter in Boston and gives a ready account of doings at the "hub."

The next Baptist District meeting of Kings Co. will be held, D. V., at Waterville, Tuesday, Jan. 16th. There will be three sessions during the day, the first beginning at 10 o'clock.

M. P. FREEMAN, Sec'y.

Count Blomden, I. O. F., is to hold a public installation of officers at their hall on Wednesday evening of next week. Each member has the privilege of inviting two friends, and a most enjoyable evening is expected. A grand rally of the Court is hoped for.

Work on the ferry is being pushed rapidly forward. The dwelling when completed will be a good one and an ornament to the town. It will be ready for occupancy the first of June, when Rev. Mr. Dixon's family will arrive and take up their residence here.

Two steamers left Halifax this week carrying a large number of apples to the English market. This has made a busy week for the railroads and apple pickers. W. H. Chase & Co.'s warehouses at Port Williams station presented a scene of activity, no less than two men being at work getting apples ready for shipment.

Acadia Villa School, Hortonville, has opened its winter session under most favorable circumstances. 15 new students having joined the school, and all but one of the old students will return. The present enrollment is 50, of which number 42 are resident pupils. The boys are a fine healthy, well disposed lot. Principal is expecting an exceptional winter's session.

THE ACADIAN—A WEEKLY PUBLICATION—By C. H. BORDEN, Editor. Published by C. H. BORDEN, Wolfville, N. S.

Local and Provincial.

We understand that Spring Hill coal has advanced 50 cents a ton at the mines.

The annual meeting of St. Andrew's church will be held on Wednesday evening of next week.

The shows of this week have made the streets in a very icy condition and especially dangerous for pedestrians.

Public schools reopened this week with a good attendance. The College, Seminary and Horton Academy opened on Wednesday.

Capt. J. A. Northup, unattached, is attached to the Kings Canadian Hussars, and will take over the command until further notice.

It appears from an Oakland, Cal. despatch that the death of Douglas B. Woodworth was hastened by injuries received ten days ago, when his horse ran away and threw him out of the carriage.

The meeting of the N. S. Fruit Growers' Association on Jan. 29th, 30th and 31st will no doubt attract a large number of visitors to Wolfville. The meetings promise to be of special interest in view of the growth in importance of the fruit growing industry.

A very sudden death occurred at Avonport on Wednesday. On the morning of that day Mrs. Charles Coffin arose as usual and shortly afterward called to her husband and fell insensible in which condition she remained until death ensued a few hours later. She was about sixty years of age.

There was a fairly good attendance of skaters at the rink last Saturday evening. The ice was in good condition and an excellent programme of music was rendered by the Wolfville band. Mr. Howie has arranged to have the band present every Saturday evening, and will do all in his power to make the rink a pleasant resort.

To REMY—Flat 6 rooms on corner of route Baptist church, A. V. PINEO.

The marriage of Miss Eva Van Arsdale, only daughter of Dr. C. I. Magnuson, of Hantsport, and Mr. Arthur Wellesley Davidson, of the royal mail steamship, Empress of India, was solemnized at the Baptist church, Hantsport, on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Robinson. The wedding was an elaborate and pretty one. The bride has many friends in Wolfville who wish her every joy.

The Halifax Chronicle announces that it is making special arrangements for obtaining exceptionally good reports of the proceedings of the Dominion Parliament and Provincial Legislatures at the coming sessions. The daily dispatches and letters from Ottawa will be written by a corps of able correspondents belonging to the Chronicle's staff, ensuring special attention to matters of peculiar interest to readers in the Maritime Provinces.

The union meetings held this week in the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches have been fairly well attended, although perhaps not so largely as might be expected. Monday and Tuesday evenings the meetings were held in the Methodist church, Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church, and last night in the Baptist church, where tonight's meeting will also be held. The meetings have been interesting, and we trust will be followed by good results.

NOTICE.

Until further notice the Wolfville Book Store will close on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 6 o'clock.
