PHILATUM.

United States Notes.

The Youth Ledger office has been moved to Bloomfield, N. J., and will hereafter be called the Collectors Ledger. Would it not be a good idea to chance it to magazine form at the same time.

The "Stamp Collector Figaro" is to come out this month with a new engraved cover. We look for something grand as the paper is well worthy of having something firstclass, by the way, the progress of this paper exceeds any we have yet seen or expect to see.

Mr. Joseph J. Casey is still holding large auction sales in New York, monthly.
One of our well-known stamp dealers has published a directory of the "Stamp dealers of United States". Price 10 cts.

The "American Journal of Philately has again appeared after a long rest. It starts out with vol. 1, No. 1. The tirst number contained 32 pages, 16 of these pages were an adenda to the 49th edition of their catalogue.

Part III of Sterling's collection was sold February 16th. 595 lots were sold. The amount realized was $$ 384.71$.

We have heard that a No. 2 of "The Collectors Journal " has appeared.

Scott Stamp and Coin Co's. 83rd and 84th auction sale of stamps and coins 1s. Nova Scotia &c. Among the coinswere an 1804 silver dollar which sold for the small amount of $$ 470.00$. Others have been known to sell for $$ 1,20000$.

A Kentucky stamp magazine has been announced for April, by Crigler & Stephenson.

The "Missouri Philatelist" which has been announced has not yet arrived.

A. P. A, Notes.

The "American Phalatelist" for March contains 40 pages; this being about the average pages monthly. The contents of it is far ahead of any other. A list of foreign envelopes is published monthly by John K. Tiffany, president of A. P. A. Some queer stamps published monthly by our wellknown writer T. C. Watkins. Stamps of French colonies and chronicles by W. C. Stone and many other articles by first-class writers.

18 collectors joined the A. P. A. in February and 38 applications were sent to the secretary.

Looking over the list of members monthly and you will tind that nearly all the Philatelists of any note are joining now: for instance, H. F. Ketcheson, president of C. P. A., and many others too numerous to mention.
If the A. P. A. keeps going on as it has in the past five months there is no doubt, but that. No. 1000 will be registered, providing they have a rusher for seoretary, as they have now. "The great city of Rome was not built in a day." This motto will do for the C. P. A. as well.

Members are now buzzing round about the c.rming election. Who will be president? Tiffany, Brock, Sterling,Mekeel, all of the above have been suggested for president by members.

How would T. C. Watkins do for vice president?

The high priced envelope deal seems to
