PROSPECTUS.

THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN, And Sunday-School Visitor.

THE want of a periodical for the young, conducted on sound Church principles, having long been felt in Canada, it is now proposed to supply the deficiency.

Every exertion will be used to make "THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN," which will appear under the sanction of the Lord Bishop of Toronto, an acceptable addition to the religious periodical literature of the day; and it will be the aim of the Editors, to render its contents at once instructive and amusing. Whilst a leading place will be given to matters more especially connected with the religious instruction of the rising generation, "THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN" will contain articles of a more general character; and its pages will be diversified with biographical sketches, narratives, and tales original as well as selected.

The progress and prospects of the Church in Canada will ever meet with prompt and prominent attention; and no pains will be spared to impress upon the young the duty of supporting her Missionary and other schemes.

It is with pleasure the publisher announces that he has secured the services of several Clergymen and others, whose names, if he were permitted to state them, would afford ample guarantee that the theological and literary character of the projected work will be of no secondary or dubious nature.

"THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN" will appear semi-monthly, printed in folscep quarto form, and contain eight pages. Its price will be Two Shillings and Sixpence per annum, payable in advance; any person ordering ten or more copies, and remitting the amount, will be entitled to one copy gratis. As the success of the publication will depend upon the punctuality of the payments, orders will only be filled when accompanied by the subscription.

It is intended, if sufficient encouragement be received to warrant the undertaking, to issue the first number in time to reach subscribers by the 1st of January, 1851; and thus to enable parents and teachers to present their children and classes with a suitable New Year's Gift.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54, Gold Street, New York, continues to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F.R.S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M.A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture, in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1,400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows: viz.:

- The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative)-
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig).
The North British Review, (Free-Church).
The Westminster Review, (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other Journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons," and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by M. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS:

Table showing terms for reviews and magazines: For any one of the four Reviews $3.00, For any two do. 5.00, For any three do. 7.00, etc.

(Payments to be made in all cases in Advance.) Money, current in the States where issued, will be received at par.

Remittances and communications should be always, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers. LEONARD SCOTT & Co., 97, Fulton Street, New York, Entrance 54, Gold Street.
