In Lighter Vein

Frugality.—"No, Madge, dear," said the frugal husband, "I shall not take you to the theatre or to supper or even buy you a dish of ice cream. You see, you are a qualified voter now and I might be accused of trying to influence your vote."—Chicago News.

Too Late.—Neighbour—"And how's yer guid man this mornin', Mrs. Tamson?"

Mrs. Tamson—"He deed last night." Neighbour—"I'm real sorry to hear that. Ye'll no remember if he happened to say anything about a pot o' green paint before he slippet awa?"—Punch.

A Linguist.—An old but sturdy Irishman, who had made a reputation as a gang "boss," got a job with a railroad construction company at Port au Prince, Haiti.

One day when the sun was hotter than usual, his gang of Haitians began to shirk, and as the chief engineer rode up on his horse, he heard the Irishman shout:

"Allez!—you sons of guns—allez!" Then, turning to the engineer, he said, "I curse the day I iver learned their language."—Everybody's.

For the Collection.—Mrs. Murphy was getting the supper for the children on Saturday night when a young woman came to her door.

"I'm a collector for the Drunkards' Home," she said. "Could you help us?"

"Come around to-night and I'll give you Murphy," said the housewife as she went about her work.—Life.

Proof of Intelligence.—Cholly—"Is this horse intelligent, me good fellow?"

Groom—"Very! Look out he don't kick you, sir!"—Puck.

The Master of the House.—"Er—Sophie—er—I believe your mistress and the young ladies have arranged to go to—er—Winklemouth for their holidays. Do you happen to—ah—have any idea whether they are—er—taking me?"—London Opinion.

The Cheerful Thought.—Brown (who has just returned from his holidays, to Robinson about to leave for his)—"Ah, this is what we all want. Three or four weeks of steady rain will brighten things up a lot!"

Made Up For It.—Fay: "The Widow Dashaway's husband didn't leave her much when he died, did he?"

Ray: "No; but he left her very often when he was alive."—Philadelphia Record.

The Busy Editor.—After the fire that destroyed Barnum's Museum, the proprietor consulted his friends as to his wisest course. He told them he had a fortune, and could easily retire from active business.

Among his friends was Horace Greeley.

"What shall I do?" asked Barnum. "If I were you," replied Greeley, "I would go fishing. I've been trying for thirty years to go fishing, and have never been able to do it."—Youth's Companion.

He Got His Answer.—An old farmer was noted for boasting about the products of his farm. So one day a neighbour, thinking to take a rise out of him, sent his man to ask if he could have the loan of his cross-cut saw to cut a turnip up, so as to get it in the cart.

He was not quite sure, however, that he had had the best of it when he received the following reply:—

"You should have had the saw with pleasure, but I have just got it fast in a potato."

Precocious.—Teacher (to boy on front seat): "What were the principal military events in the reign of Claudius Caesar?"

Boy: "He had four wives."—Life.

Old Country Knitters are acknowledged to be the best, all the world over. For this reason we employ them to make "CEETEE" Underclothing.

"CEETEE" Underclothing is knitted on special machines entirely different in every way from ordinary machines.

It is the only Underclothing made on this style of machine in Canada.

All "CEETEE" Underclothing is made from the softest, finest Australian Merino Wool only. This wool is put through a thorough treatment of combings and scourings that removes every particle of foreign matter and leaves every strand as soft and clean as humanly possible.

"CEETEE" Underclothing is so soft that it will not irritate even an infant's skin. All joins are knitted together (not sewn) making each garment practically one piece. It has no rough spots. Every garment is fashioned automatically during the knitting to fit the human form, thus rendering it comfortable, easy to wear, and perfect fitting.

These are the reasons why "CEETEE" Underclothing is in a class by itself, and is
